REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHARTERS UPON FORM OF CHARTER FOR PARISHES AND LEGISLATION AFFECTING SAME.

PHILADELPHIA, May 4, 1915.

To the Members of the One Hundred and Thirty-first Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

GENTLEMEN:

The Committee on Charters respectfully reports that in consequence of the action of the Convention of 1914, Journal, page 62, in referring back to the Committee the whole subject of a recommended form of charter for parishes, to report to the next Convention, and authorizing the Committee to secure such legislation as it shall deem proper, the Committee has held ten meetings since the adjournment of said Convention.

As was pointed out in the last report of the Committee the law governing the incorporation and regulation of religious corporations is in a confused condition. It is to be found scattered through a large number of acts, supplements and amendments, most of which refer mainly to corporations having nothing in common with religious bodies except that they are corporations, and in decisions of courts, some of which conflict with each other.

After due consideration the Committee carefully prepared what is in effect a code of the law governing the incorporation and regulation of corporations for the maintenance of public worship. The proposed act, while making practically no radical changes in the law, brings it together and sets it forth clearly in a single act so that those who are to be governed by it can readily find it. The act was introduced in the Senate on April 6th by Senator Edward W. Patton, being Senate Bill No. 736, and in the House of Representatives on the same day by Representative William Walsh, being House Bill No. 1366.

The Committee further prepared a short act to authorize the insertion in charters of a provision making the rector during his continuance in that office ex-officio President of the Vestry, and validating similar provisions in charters heretofore granted.*

The Committee is as yet unable to report the passage of either bill, but hopes that at least the latter bill may be enacted into law.

Until some change is made in the law the Committee deems it inadvisable to propose any change in the form of charter for parishes recommended by it for adoption by the Convention in 1914 (JOURNAL, page 307). As this form was not printed in last year's JOURNAL, the Committee attaches it to this report in order that it may be available to the Convention.

After the adjournment of the legislature should any change have been made in the law affecting it the Committee will be in position to recommend any change in the form that may seem necessary or desirable and report thereon to the next Convention.

The Committee respectfully recommends the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the form of Charter for parishes recommended in the report of the Committee on Charters to the last Diocesan Convention be printed in the Journal of this Convention.

Resolved, That the Committee on Charters be directed to report to the next Convention any change in said form which may in its opinion be rendered necessary or desirable by any laws adopted at the present session of the legislature.

HORACE F. FULLER,
HENRY MARTYN MEDARY,
WILLIAM DRAYTON,
JAMES WILSON BAYARD,
GEORGE B. HAWKES,
Committee.

* This bill has been passed and signed by the Governor. For bill see Appendix V.

For recommended Form, see Appendix V.

For Treasurer's Report, see Appendix G.

Mr. E. L. Miller presented the report of the Treasurer of the Diocese. (See Appendix H.)

On motion of the Rev. L. N. Caley, a rising vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. Miller for his faithful services as Treasurer of the Diocese.

Mr. Miller read the report of the Custodians of the Church House as follows:

The Custodians of the Church House beg leave to report:

The past year has been uneventful in the maintenance of your building. Every available room is rented and the treasurer's report shows receipts from every possible source (including $58.33 arrears of 1913 rent) $36.78 less than the cost of maintenance in a year when only the most necessary repairs have been made to keep the building in fair physical condition.

Two serious increases in the fixed charges have been made which will doubtless continue unless successful steps can be taken to reduce them. Taxes on an increased valuation from $160,000 to $200,000 have increased $375 per annum, and interest on mortgage $330 by an advance in the rate from 4½ per cent to 5 per cent. The deficit charged to Convention account $36.78, as against $1,614.56 in 1914 is encouraging, but only because all expenses have been cut down to the lowest possible point. The stonework of the exterior should be cleaned for the first time since the erection of the building, painting must be done for upkeep. This can only be met in future by drafts upon the Convention Fund, and this should not be done.

Eight years ago the Convention by resolution ordered that $500 of the rental of the Walnut Street store should be paid to the Board of Control of the Diocesan Library. Your Custodians feel it incumbent upon them, in view of the above facts, to say they cannot afford this expenditure and beg to submit the following as its recommendation:

WHEREAS, By action of the Convention of 1907 the Treasurer was directed to pay to the Board of Control of the Diocesan Library the sum of $500 annually out of the rental of store No. 1127 Walnut Street (see JOURNAL 1907, p. 136); and,

WHEREAS, Since the passage of said resolution the interest on the mortgage debt has increased from $2,680, to $3,016.67, and taxes on the building have increased from $2,400 to $3,000, a total of $936.67, without any increase in the rental of the store. Therefore,

Resolved, That the Treasurer be and is hereby instructed to cease payments to the Board of Control of the Diocesan Library, and apply entire rental of the store to maintenance of the Church House, on and after the adoption of this resolution.

Resolved, That the Treasurer be authorized in lieu thereof to pay this amount out of the Convention Fund.

The Custodians received on July 17, 1914, the resignation of Mr. G. Clymer Brooke, and elected Mr. B. Franklin Pepper to fill the vacancy.

Respectfully submitted,

G. WOOLSEY HODGE,
FRANCIS A. LEWIS,

To the Members of the One Hundred and Thirty-first Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania:

GENTLEMEN: The committee appointed to cooperate with the counsel of any parish in obtaining the decision of a Court of Appeal on the form of Charters, respectfully reports:

That inasmuch as the Convention of 1913 referred the subject of preparing a new charter to the Committee on Charters, which prepared an elaborate report and submitted the same to the one hundredth and thirtieth Convention. which was referred back to said committee (see JOURNAL of 1914, p. 53), and said committee has prepared an act embodying their ideas and had it introduced in the present Legislature; and inasmuch as a proposed codification of the corporation law is also before the Legislature; and inasmuch as the master in the case of the application of St. Bartholomew's Church for a charter has rendered no decision on the exceptions filed; and as, in view of the possible legislation referred to, it is difficult to decide as to the points important to be presented to a court of appeal in that case; now,

It is respectfully suggested that, as soon as the Legislature adjourns and it is possible to know what points are important to be raised in the matter; and the parish of St. Bartholomew having expressed a willingness to have the proceedings already instituted pressed to a conclusion, provided the parish shall be at no expense in connection therewith; the matter should be disposed of in accordance with the following resolutions, to wit:

Resolved, That the Committee on Charters be and is hereby empowered to obtain counsel at the expense of the Diocese, to represent St. Bartholomew's parish in its application for a charter.

Resolved, That the bills for expenses incurred be audited and approved by the Standing Committee, either with or without prior authorization by it, as the exigency of the case may require; and,

Col. Potter read the report of the Committee on Claims of Lay Deputies to seats in the Convention as follows:

To the One Hundred and Thirty-first Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania:

Your Committee appointed to consider the Claims of Lay Deputies to seats in the Convention would respectfully report:

That there was referred to it the certificates of two delegations, each purporting to represent St. John's Protestant Episcopal Church, Northern Liberties.

One of these certificates was dated the first day of May, 1915, and was certified by the rector of the parish only.

It does not set forth that the delegates named therein were appointed or elected, nor that they had been for not less than six months before the time of their election worshippers in the church they were deputed to represent. It in no respect complies with the requirements of Canon II relating to the evidence of appointment of lay deputies to the Convention.

And your Committee therefore finds that the delegates named therein are not entitled to seats.

The other of said certificates is in the form prescribed by Canon II, above mentioned, purports to be certified by a warden and two vestrymen of St. John's parish, is in every respect regular on its face.

No objection has been raised either to the qualification of the delegates certified or of the officers certifying the same. Your Committee therefore finds that the delegates therein mentioned are entitled to be seated.

A certificate also was presented to your Committee certifying the election of three delegates by the vestry of the Memorial Church of the Holy Nativity, Rockledge, Pa.

This certificate is made by the Acting Secretary and does not certify that the delegates named therein have been for not less than six months prior to their election worshippers in the church they are deputed to represent.

It is therefore not in accordance with the requirements of the above mentioned Canon. And your Committee therefore finds that the delegates therein mentioned are not entitled to seats in this Convention.

We attach hereunto the several certificates above mentioned.

Respectfully submitted,

SHELDON POTTER,
EDMUND B. MCCARTHY,
J. LEE PATTON.

The Rev. Dr. Robinson continued the report of the Committee on Canons.

The Committee on Canons, to which was referred the amendment to Canon X, proposed by Mr. George B. Hawkes, as follows:

Resolved, That "Canon X of the Treasurer and Funds of the Diocese Section 2, Episcopal Fund," be amended by adding at the end of the first paragraph of sub-section "i" the following words:

The annual report of each parish or congregation shall show all current expenses of said parish or congregation, whether the same be paid out of the church treasury or from any other source whatever, and shall state when a dwelling place is provided for any minister or other person employed in the work of such parish or congregation; in which case the committee shall treat the use of such dwelling place as an addition of twenty per cent to the money compensation of such minister or employee. Money from other sources expended for current expenses shall be treated as expenditures of the parish or congregation for the purpose of fixing its assessment."

They recommend that the second, ending with the word "Employee," be adopted.

WEDNESDAY, 2.30 P. M., May 5, 1915.

The Convention reassembled, the Bishop presiding.

The certificate from the Holy Nativity, Rockledge, was referred to the Committee on Claims of Laity to Seats.

The order of the day being the report of the Committee on Church Pension Fund, the Rev. Dr. Harris presented the report of the Committee on Canons.

The Committee on Canons, to which was referred the proposed Canon on the Church Pension Fund offered by the Rev. Dr. Washburn (see Appendix U-2.), respectfully report that they have examined the proposed amendment, and find that it does not conflict with any of the provisions of the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese, except certain provisions of Canon X, Section 4, on the Christmas Fund, and recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee on Canons be discharged from further consideration of the subject.

By order of the Committee.

J. A. HARRIS,
Chairman.

The Committee was discharged.

Dr. Washburn offered the following:

Resolved, That this Convention invites Mr. Monell Sayre and the members of the Commission who are not members of the Convention to seats in this house.

The motion was adopted.

Dr. Washburn presented the REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON THE CHURCH PENSION FUND.

Your Commission respectfully reports that it has given its best attention to the important task assigned to it, and herewith unanimously recommends that this Convention should agree to enter the Church Pension Fund and adopt the accompanying Canon.

It will be recalled that the last Convention formally approved the plan of the General Convention of 1913 on this subject, and instructed us to take into consideration the relation which the Diocese of Pennsylvania should bear to the proposed Fund.

This action was taken after a clear explanation had been made by the Bishop of Massachusetts, and the Secretary of the Fund. The principles and workings of the Fund have since then been more thoroughly considered by your Commission and have been more fully laid before the Clergy and Laity of the Diocese through the Church News and by circular letters supplying details and figures to each individual and administrative body affected. An explanatory pamphlet of twenty-two pages discussing the proposition in its various aspects has also been supplied to all; and on April 19th a personal conference with Mr. Sayre was arranged for both the Clerical Brotherhood and representative Laymen. In view of this extensive campaign of education, your Commission can best serve you here and now by but briefly indicating certain outstanding considerations in connection with the Fund. The parishes which have thus far replied to our letters have expressed assent to the plan in the proportion of 5 to 1. We are becoming increasingly impressed with the beneficence and with the wisdom of the action proposed for your adoption. The situation in the Church calls for immediate and adequate remedy. Aged and disabled clergy, widows and orphans are suffering from our corporate neglect and inefficiency. The Church is hampered in her sacred mission. The method for relieving the intolerable condition has been thoroughly worked out by the most sympathetic and able experts available.

All the details of such a comprehensive and intricate specialized subject may not at once be comprehended by the rank and file; nor is it to be expected that there should be an entire unanimity of opinion on all points involved, from so considerable a body as this; yet enough has been made clear to justify and impel your Commission to call for your unhesitating and positive endorsement of the Fund as both tenderly altruistic and soundly workable; placing our Church in the forefront of religious bodies toward the duty of making sympathetic equitable and sane provision of her veterans and their families. After several generations of most capable presentation our existing agencies are still insufficient to care for more than fifty per cent of those in need; a way is now presented for expanding and unifying these agencies, and supplanting an uncertain gratuity for a few by a substantial and automatic pension for all who enter into it. The plan deals with the problem on national rather than Diocesan lines, safe-guarding the minister who consecrates himself to the work in remote and undeveloped districts. It relates us with far-seeing providence to the expanding future as effectively as to the present generation.

We cannot be too appreciative of the fine magnanimity which has prompted and provided for the inauguration of this Fund, and which is ready to undertake the securing of the very large amount (perhaps five million of dollars) necessary to cover the accrued liabilities.

It is to be frankly added that after the Church has adopted the Fund, there will still remain a number of the brethren unprovided for by this plan; exceptional cases which must inevitably arise under any finite method will call for special provision; and we confidently leave the future to make such amendments and supplements to the Fund as may prove desirable. Difficulties which have been suggested concerning the proposition to secure the cooperation of the Christmas Fund have received special attention; and Section V of the Canon has been recast with the intent to meet them. Already sixty-five other Dioceses have succeeded in solving this detail; by doing so we shall by so much reduce the premium rate upon our respective parishes.

It is with very genuine concern that we have noted the alleged defect of the Plan in establishing a limited sliding scale based upon premiums paid, and the implication that the Clergy are not given the highest motive for their appeals in behalf of the Fund. With the sensitive desire to reckon with the attitude of the few brethren who have so expressed themselves, and the deepest sympathy with the determination to combat the insidious poison of worldliness, we yet recall that there is no conflict between the Sermon on the Mount and the multiplication table. It is not a mistake to fault sound economic methods as inconsistent with finest sentiments? Is it not true that the charge of self-seeking lodges against all caring for one's own, as directly as in this matter? The further one enters into an understanding of the spirit and intent and operation of the Pension Fund, the more clearly and persuasively one hears its challenge to corporate loyalty and to the Christ-like zeal for sharing in such wise as to protect the delicate bloom of self respect.

It was in this mind that the General Convention launched the project; and it is on such grounds that our sister Dioceses are now taking it up; Massachusetts has just endorsed it with but two dissenting votes. This great Diocese of Pennsylvania is now called upon to register its decision on this vitally important forward movement. Let it be such a clearly discriminating and warm-hearted endorsement as shall strengthen the Church throughout the land in its high purpose.

Respectfully submitted:

LOUIS C. WASHBURN,
ALLAN R. VAN METER,
E. WALTER CLARK,
JAMES F. FAHNESTOCK,
WILLIAM T. WRIGHT.

PHILADELPHIA, April 30, 1915.

NOTE.—The committee further suggests favorable action on the following resolutions:

Resolved, That in endorsing the Church Pension Fund this Convention records its preference for having the aggregate of the annual assessments for the Clergy assumed as a Diocesan obligation to be met as follows:

A. By the available income from the investments of the Christmas Fund;

B. By offerings in all our congregations through the weekly or monthly envelopes, and on Christmas Day; and

C. If by the 15th of January the amount received from these sources is not sufficient the requisite balance shall be apportioned to the Parishes, Missions, and other ecclesiastical organizations of the Diocese on the same basis pro rata as the Apportionment for Missions.

Resolved, That this action be referred to the Committee on the Church Pension Fund with instructions to consult with the Trustees at the central office of the Fund as to the feasibility of operating under this method in harmony with the general system; and if feasible, to so operate if and when the Fund goes into effect; and to report to the next Convention (if it has so been done) the necessary changes in the Canon.

Mr. Goodwin moved the consideration of the Proposed Canon as in the Committee of the Whole.

The resolution was adopted.

The House went into the Committee of the Whole.

The Bishop reported that the Convention had arisen as the Committee of the Whole and was now sitting as the Convention.

Mr. Lewis moved that Section I, as reported by the Committee, be adopted by the Convention.

SECTION I. In conformity with the resolutions adopted by the General Convention of 1913, setting forth the principles upon which a pension system for the clergy of the Church and their dependents should be constructed, pursuant to which the corporation of Church Pension Fund has been created to carry these principles into effect, the Diocese of Pennsylvania adopts the system of the Church Pension Fund.

A vote being called for by Orders, on motion, Section I was adopted. Clergy: Ayes, 84; Noes, 44. Laity: Ayes, 45; Noes, 27.

Mr. Lewis moved that the remaining sections be referred back to the Committee to report at the next Convention. (See Appendix U-2.)

The resolution was adopted.

On motion, the Convention adjourned, to meet at 9.30 A. M., Thursday.

C. L. FULFORTH,
Secretary.

PHILADELPHIA, CHURCH OF ST. LUKE AND THE EPIPHANY,
THURSDAY, 9.30 A. M., May 6, 1915.

The Convention assembled pursuant to adjournment.

The session was opened with prayer by the Bishop.

The minutes of yesterday's session were read and approved.

Mr. Lewis presented the following:

Resolved, That the Committee on Charters, Canons, Claims of Clergy to Seats, Claims of Laity to Seats, and Expenses be continued until the close of the next Annual Convention, and that the Bishop be authorized to appoint a Committee on Dispatch of Business to serve until the close of the next Convention.

The resolution was adopted.

The Rev. H. F. Fuller presented the report of the Committee on Charters on amendments to the Charter of the Church of the Redemption and offered the appended resolutions, which were adopted.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHARTERS ON AMENDMENTS TO CHARTER OF CHURCH OF THE REDEMPTION, PHILADELPHIA.

PHILADELPHIA, May 4, 1915.

To the Members of the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

GENTLEMEN: Under the provisions of Canon IV, as amended in 1914, there was presented at the meeting of the Committee on Charters held April 28, 1915, an application for the approval by the Convention of certain amendments to the charter of "The Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church of the Redemption" which was allowed by the Supreme Court in May, 1846, and amended by allowance of the same court in April, 1847.

The amendments are numerous and provide, inter alia, for the extension of membership in the corporation to those entitled to vote for Vestrymen, the Vestry becoming the governing body only instead of being the corporation; the election of one third of the Vestrymen each year to serve for three years instead of electing the whole number each year to serve one year; authorize the Vestry to make by-laws; authorize a change in the method of supporting the Church from pew rents to contributions through envelopes or otherwise; increase the amount of property which may be held by the corporation; require the consent of the Vestry and corporation for the alienation or encumbrance of real estate, and remove limitations upon the purposes for which funds may be expended.

Under the Act of 1885 which subjects the property of a church, congregation or religious society to the "control and disposition of the lay members of such church, congregation or religious society or the control and disposition of such constituted officers or representatives thereof as shall be composed of a majority of lay members, citizens of Pennsylvania, having a controlling power," etc., a person not a laymen can neither vote directly upon any matter concerning the control and disposition of the property nor indirectly by voting for the constituted officers or representatives of the lay members who have such control and disposition. The provision, "The Rector shall be a member of the corporation without vote," inserted by the amendments into Article Sixth therefore goes as far as the law permits.

There is nothing in the present charter making the Rector presiding officer or President of the Vestry. The act under which amendments must be obtained provides for periodical election of Vestrymen and the annual election of a President. As the law now stands the insertion in the charter of a provision making the Rector ex-officio presiding officer of the Vestry would be illegal. A bill now before the legislature authorizes the insertion in a church charter of a provision making the Rector during his continuance in office, ex-officio, President of the Vestry. Should it be enacted before the amendments are presented to the Court it would be possible to have such a provision inserted in the charter.

The requirement inserted in Article Fifth that the Vestrymen shall be males, continues the present practice and seems to be proper, but the wisdom of inserting the further new provision that they shall be "communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church registered in this Church" is doubtful. The Vestrymen have no spiritual functions. They act only on temporal business. While it is desirable that communicants should be chosen when fitted for the position and legally qualified yet such selection should not be made compulsory. In case of a controversy between the Rector and the Vestry, the Rector, removing the names of his opponents from the register of communicants, so that the Bishop could not have time to act upon an appeal therefrom before an election, might under this provision make his opponents ineligible for election as Vestrymen and in this manner improperly secure control of the Vestry. While fortunately such bitter controversies are unusual, the Committee knows of four instances in recent years in which the name of an opponent was improperly removed from the list of communicants in order to disqualify him, with subsequent reversal and restoration upon appeal, but in two cases the restoration was not effected until after the election. The charter should not afford opportunity for such abuse.

While making the foregoing suggestions, the Committee finds nothing in the amendments as presented inconsistent with the constitution or canons of the Church. It recommends the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That the amendments to the charter of "The Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church of the Redemption" be approved.

2. Resolved, That in the event of the enactment by the present legislature of a bill authorizing same, the approval of the Convention be given for the insertion in Article Sixth as proposed to be amended, as a substitute for or in addition to the words "The Rector shall be a member of the corporation without vote" the words "He shall during his continuance in the office of Rector be ex-officio President of the Vestry."

3. Resolved, That the approval of the Convention be given for the omission from the proposed Article Fifth the words "communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church registered in this Church" and the insertion after the word "adult" of the word "baptized" and after the word "Pennsylvania" of the words "and members of the corporation."

4. Resolved, That the Committee on Charters be discharged from further consideration of the subject.

HORACE F. FULLER, Chairman.

The resolution was lost.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne presented the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Secretary be instructed to print the reports of the parishes in the JOURNAL as they appeared in the JOURNAL of 1912 and previous years.

The resolution was adopted.

The Secretary read the report of the Committee on Claims of Laity to Seats, a follows:

Canon II determines the evidence and conditions upon which a Lay deputy shall be admitted to a seat in the Convention.

It is mandatory and provides, inter alia, "That the Certificate SHALL be in duplicate, and one copy forwarded to the Secretary of the Convention, at least one week before the meeting of the Convention." This is a condition precedent to the admission of the Deputies of any Church and a wise limitation upon the right to a seat in the Convention. Without it there would be no opportunity to examine into the qualifications of deputies or the validity of elections, nor to prepare and present protests.

The subject matter of the certificates is also mandatory, and as the certificate originally presented did not set forth that which was required by the Canon, and was not certified by the persons required by the Canon, its defects cannot be cured by the presentation at the Convention of a Certificate in the form required by the Canon.

Your Committee therefore reluctantly finds that the Lay Deputies from The Memorial Church of the Holy Nativity, Rockledge, County of Montgomery, are not entitled to be seated.

SHELDON POTTER,
EDMUND B. MCCARTHY,
Committee.

Mr. Goodwin offered the following:

Resolved, That the names of the delegates from the Church of the Nativity be entered on the record of the Convention.

" 'Immediately after the four Clerical and four Lay Deputies shall have been elected, the Convention shall elect four Clergymen and four Laymen to be Alternate Deputies to the General Convention.' " respectfully report that they have considered the same and recommend its adoption, and offer the following resolution:

And their names may be entered upon the list of the communicants of said parish or mission, and due notice of this action shall be sent to the Rector or Minister-in-charge of the parish where they have hitherto been registered communicants.'"

Also renumber present Sections 5 and 6 of Canon XIII, 6 and 7, respectively.

respectfully report that they have considered the same and find that the proposed provision is covered by the Canon of the General Convention, and offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee on Canons be discharged from further consideration of the subject.

By order of the Committee.

J. A. HARRIS,
Chairman.

The Committee was discharged.

Bishop Garland offered the following:

Resolved, That there be stricken out of Section 8 of Canon VIII the words following "convocations," line 24, to "subsection i," inclusive, line 30, so that it shall read as follows:

SECTION 8. The Board of Missions shall meet immediately after the adjournment of the Diocesan Convention, at which meeting they shall designate the amount desired from each district, to cover the appropriations for general missionary work to be conducted by the Board as provided for in Section 2 and allotments to the several convocations. If appropriations for general diocesan missionary work as above shall not already have been made by the Convention, the Board of Missions shall have power to make appropriations for such work as then already undertaken by the Diocese, but not exceeding in aggregate amount the appropriations for the last fiscal year.

The resolution was adopted.

The Bishop bid the Convention to prayer.

Mr. Hawkes called up the consideration of Canon X, laid on the table yesterday.

The point being raised that the required constitutional quorum was not present, the matter was declared out of order.

Mr. Goodwin moved that the resolution under which we were considering Canon X be postponed until the next Convention.

The resolution was adopted.

The Rev. L. N. Caley reported for the Committee on Religious Education and offered the appended resolution. (See Appendix N.)

The resolution was adopted.

Mr. E. L. Miller reported for the Committee on Expenses and offered the appended resolution, which was adopted.

The Committee on Expenses, to whom was referred the following, that the proper Diocesan authority be requested to consider the practicability of including an appropriation of $1,500 for the work of the Social Service Commission in the diocesan budget; and that meanwhile the Treasurer of the Diocese be authorized to honor requisitions of the Commission for printing, postage and typewriting to an amount not exceeding $150, begs leave to report:

The resolution voting $150 for expenses of printing, postage and typewriting for the Committee on Social Service, it recommends an amendment, making the amount $50.00.

In explanation of the above, the Committee calls to the attention of the Convention that on Tuesday a vote of $500 was granted to the Board of Control of the Diocesan Library; the grant under the amendment to Canon XV involves an expenditure of nearly $300 more. The latter grant is a matter of duty to the missionary cause of the Church and cannot be neglected. The recommendation for the Social Service Committee is far more than the amount expended by it last year, and should meet its ordinary requirements commensurate with those of other committees of the Convention.

In the matter of the grant to the Diocesan Library, your Committee recommends the advisability of a material reduction of the amount in each succeeding Convention year until it can be fixed at a maximum of $100 annually, the Library thereafter to be maintained from sources outside the Convention Fund. But in event of continued and increasing drafts upon this fund, the only course left will be that of increased assessments upon the parishes, which, in the opinion of your Committee, is much to be deplored, and avoided if possible.

Your Committee therefore offers the following:

Resolved, That the Committee on Expenses be discharged from further consideration of the subjects.

Respectfully submitted,

D. M. STEELE,
E. L. MILLER,
Committee.

Mr. Pepper moved to reconsider the vote to discharge the Committee.

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania be instructed that when applying for the amendment of their Charter they shall apply for a further amendment increasing the limit upon the amount of property which the said corporation may lawfully acquire and hold to such amount as the Trustees shall deem to be sufficient for the purposes of said corporation.

APPENDIX A.

The Bishop's Charge to the Convention.

While the Convention remains standing, let me read, in remembrance before God, the names of those who, with a special claim upon us, have departed this life since our last meeting:

Of the Bishops of this Church:

Charles Scadding.
Robert Strange.
Franklin Spencer Spalding.
William Farrar Weeks.

Of the Priests of this Diocese:

William Smythe.
William Clarence Richardson.
Arthur Hess.
James Haughton.
Samuel Philip Kelly.
Lewis Carter Baker.

Of former Delegates to this Convention:

Edward Huxford Curtis.
Richard Maris.
Nathan Parker Shortridge.
Rowland Evans.
Preston Charles Slowe.
William Taylor Gummey.
Joseph R. Rhoads.
Nathan Alfred Taylor.

"The Lord grant unto them that they may find mercy of the Lord in that day." II Tim. 1:18.

Almighty God, with whom do live the spirits of those who depart hence in the Lord, and with whom the souls of the faithful, after they are delivered from the burden of the flesh, are in joy and felicity: We give Thee hearty thanks for the good examples of all those Thy servants, who, having finished their course in faith, do now rest from their labors. And we beseech Thee, that we, with all those who have departed in the true faith of Thy Holy Name, may have our perfect consummation and bliss, both in body and soul, in Thy eternal and everlasting glory: Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

REDEMPTION IN THE MIDST OF JUDGMENT.

"When these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads, for your redemption draweth nigh."—St. Luke xxi: 28.

I.

These words of Christ clearly refer to the last Judgment. Only then can they find their complete fulfilment and final vindication. At that last overwhelming crisis, those who are His people are to put away fear, despair and shame; are to remember Who it is that comes, and why He comes; and are to look for their redemption in the midst of judgment.

But the immediate reference of Christ's words is to the impending destruction of Jerusalem. He foresaw it and foretold it, and He required His disciples "to accept so freely the doom upon their nation as being God's inevitable judgment that they could await, without an effort to avert it, the ruin of their city and their temple, and watch the approach of the day of disaster with an awful joy."[1]

The Destruction of Jerusalem

Even then, as Jews, as children of the ancient covenant, as heirs of the ancient promises, as citizens of Zion, even then they were to recognize that God visits His people for their help, not for their hurt; that the motive of His judgment is His mercy.

2.

In all the crises of human history the faith of Christian people is the same. God is always judging. What we call crises are but His judgments, writ so large that even blind eyes can see them. And all are of His mercy. All are for the succor and defense of good over against evil. All are for, and with, redemption. Not fear, nor agony, nor agitation are to be the Christian's chief emotion, as he faces them, but calm, resolute, expectant hope.

The Crises of History

So when the northern nations came pouring in to overwhelm the Roman empire; so when the hosts of Islam beat down the feeble bulwarks of a disabled and distorted Christianity; so when the rising national and humanistic spirit of new Europe discredited the ancient learning and wrenched from the Western Church an unchristian and inhuman sovereignty; so when, at the close of the eighteenth century, ideals of democratic government and popular rights overthrew the thrones of kings and laid the foundations of the modern age; so now, most of all, when this modern age, with its enlightenment and liberty, its art and science, its industry and commerce, its wealth and power, seems to be rushing to its ruin; in all, through all, His word holds true. We are to be calm and confident, secure and serene.

But we must face the facts. We must beware of apathy and dull indifference. There is real peril for us here. Political neutrality may be a civic duty, but moral neutrality is spiritual death. Better far were it for us to be involved directly in the war than to stand by unmoved, unconscious and unchanged, drawing down upon our heads a heavier measure of God's judgment because we knew not the time of our visitation. God help us if we, as a nation and a Church, do not feel the keen edge of the Divine sword separating and sundering the evil from the good, piercing and penetrating the falseness and insincerity, the cruelty and crudeness of our modern life.

The Present War

What are the facts we have to face; the signs we have to read? One who knows has told us lately[2] that more than one million men of the best that Europe has are dead upon the battle-field; that at least three millions more are maimed and wounded; that many millions more are penniless and starving, crushed and broken. Round about this inconceivable mass of human suffering, these "rivers of human pain," there is spread desolation and destruction, past imagination, of the best fruits of human industry, of the most beautiful and sacred works of human hands, of the purest homes and shrines of human piety and love. And it is all happening in Christendom, and after 1900 years of Christian opportunity since Christ died upon the Cross to save the world.

There is where we find ourselves. In the midst of this unutterable ruin this Convention meets. Its one hundred and thirty predecessors have had serious events to face and solemn things to do. But never has a Convention of this Diocese met at a time like this. Those who come after us will read the record of what we here shall do and say with an anxious and exacting scrutiny. And God in Heaven, as He watches us—how will He measure our debates and resolutions? What will He think and judge?

II.

Signs of Redemption

Certainly He is visiting us for our redemption. So much is clear. Have we seen signs of it? Are we in any way prepared? Yes, there are signs for our comfort that His Spirit is evidently moving, though it may be only on the surface of our sluggish souls. We are feeling an impulse (perhaps not more than that so far) to a return and recollection.

Charity

First, there has been a genuine overflow of charity, not always wise or worthy, but at least displacing and disturbing our selfishness, and stirring the springs of our love. Pity and compassion have been breaking forth in unexpected places and for unfamiliar needs as though a vision had been dawning on half-blinded eyes of what human sympathy might mean: of how fair and beautiful a thing it is to minister to others; of how much more blessed it is to give than to receive.

Stability

And our charity, meanwhile, has held steadily to its old obligations. We have not forgotten our pledges. We have not withheld our bounty here that we might give it there. The increased demand has been met by an increased supply. This much we saw was our simple duty. We were not staggered by emergencies. We went out to meet them. Especially has this been true in our missionary work. When our Provincial Synod voted last November that we should double, and not halve, our offerings for missions, we felt, not only then at Pittsburgh but throughout the province, that the vote was only the bare and inevitable logic of our faith. It may have been but the impulse of a moment. We may now be shrinking from making good that vote. But we had grace to see the light shining on the Cross of the Lord's sacrifice. We had, at least, a glimpse of our redemption drawing nigh.

Revival of Religion

Once more, and deeper still (as the root lies far below the fruit, and can alone account for it), men have found themselves remembering their God and their own souls and death and judgment, and the life beyond. "Man doth not live by bread alone." "A man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth." "What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?" "This night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?" These, and other words like these, long buried, forgotten, disallowed, have been echoing once more in our ears, holding our thoughts, stirring our memories. In many ways and forms the witness comes. In singing, weeping crowds; in the noise and clamor of revivals; in quiet conference; in silent prayer. But it means one thing. It means that the Lord's love and mercy is speaking in the midst of judgment. "Fear not." "Only believe." "Look up; lift up your heads. Your redemption draweth nigh."

III.

So far, then, Christ is making good His promise. When He comes to judge, He comes to save. We have seen and felt it. The impulse is upon us.

But an impulse will not do. It remains for us, by the very grace of His redemption, to convert this uncertain, fitful impulse of the heart into the enlightened and settled habit of the life. And that will mean a spiritual and moral revolution. Brethren, whatever else we do or leave undone, let us be penitent. Let us boast of nothing and depend on nothing save only the power of Christ's death and life, and the amazing patience of His love. Let us acknowledge, all of us here present, though we be ministers of His ordaining, and chosen representatives and leaders of His Church, that we have sinned grievously against Him, in thought and word and deed; that our "righteousness is as filthy rags;" that we are "wretched and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked."

The Process of Redemption

That first, and then in the power of our penitence and of His forgiving love, let us go forward to lay hold on our redemption. First, by a truer acknowledgment of Sonship. Secondly, in a more loyal and loving life of Membership, and lastly, by the inspiration and intimacy of His Friendship.

Sonship, Membership, Friendship with Jesus Christ: they mark the requirements of this great hour, the conditions of redemption.

First, and quite briefly, Sonship. The Fatherhood of God is no sentimental claim of privilege, no guarantee of easy-going benevolent, indulgence. In truth it means that we are utterly dependent; our life, our breath; our health, our wealth; our brains, our influence; all we have and are, from day to day, through time and through eternity, comes from Him, and rests on Him. And the author of our life must have authority over our living. "Because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of His Son into your heart, crying Abba, Father." And to cry "Abba! Father" means to say "Lo, I come to do Thy will, O God."

Sonship

All this we have forgotten. We seem to think that there is no will of God at all; that His proper part and plan in our world is simply to help us in getting what we want, in going where we will. There is where all our trouble comes from: yes, all the trouble of a world at war. Even in our prayers man dare to say: "Father, not Thy will but mine be done!" Sonship, then, is what we need to learn. Sonship truly understood, openly acknowledged, faithfully fulfilled. That is the witness of the Spirit, the meaning of redemption. Without it, redemption is but the story of a dream.

And next, Membership. "Ye are members one of another." That is no new enactment, no new alignment or disposition of our affairs. It is simply the law of our nature. We are made that way, as members. "No one liveth to himself, and no one dieth to himself." It is the simple fact. The very possibility of life, to say nothing of its sustenance, is found in membership, depends on our relation to our communities. Our righteousness and virtue is measured by our right functioning in membership, by a right discharge of our relationships, human and Divine. So man's redemption means his redemption as a member, for such he is, and the Grace of Jesus Christ is given to us that this basic law of nature may be fulfilled. The meaning of membership; its checks and limitations, its self-restraints and self-denials, its patience and forbearance, its law that we shall seek not our own but others' good; that is what Christ would have us learn.

Here, again, we all have failed so grievously. In spite of all our benevolence and philanthropy, how grossly selfish, how greedy of gain and power, our social order has become; how cruel and insensible. In our very religion where the true spring of brotherhood ought to be found, we trust in our own ideas, we follow our own ways, and we make our own gods, just like the heathen. Well, we must begin somewhere. Let us begin at home. Let us no longer talk vaguely about universal brotherhood, about world peace and general disarmament, and a spiritual unity which makes up for all apparent separations and antagonisms. Let us begin to live as members in our own spiritual family; with our own brothers and sisters in the faith. The Church, yes, our own parish, gives us an immediate opportunity, provides us with a school where we may learn, an arena where we may practise, membership. Let us be loyal, because loyalty to a beloved community draws us out of selfishness and isolation, into a larger common life; makes us open to the influence of Christ. We have our Church principles: let us be true to them. We have our Christian rules of life and scales of value: let us bear witness to them. We have high views of the sanctity of marriage: let us hold fast by them. We have tests for the worthy reception of Communion:

let us submit to them. We have standards of public worship and private prayer: let us conform to them. Let our sonship, step by step, complete itself in our membership so that redemption will come forth from judgment.

And lastly, Friendship; friendship with Jesus Christ. "I have called you friends;" not servants, for servants do only what they are told to do; nor followers, for it is possible to follow at a distance, very far behind; nor disciples, for one can pick and choose as a disciple, accepting this, rejecting that. But friends, really within the circle of His life, and so, inevitably, companions of His Cross. Here we come to the heart of the whole matter.

Sacrifice is certainly the law of the Lord's own life. Why should any one ever have believed that it is possible to belong to Christ and not know sacrifice? And yet one could sum up accurately the whole development of modern Christianity by calling it an elaborate, and often a very scholarly, attempt to invent a Christianity without a Cross. And it has taken this terrible war to make men see that Christianity without the Cross is simple Paganism. Brethren, God is so clearly teaching it to all the warring nations. The awful sacrifices which they are making are having at least one blessed result; they are setting up again the Cross of Christ, not only above the soldiers' graves, but over the whole continent of Europe. And shall we miss that crowning certainty of our redemption? Shall we, of all the western nations, continue without the knowledge of the Cross? There is so very little of sacrifice among us now, so very little devotion that will stand the test of friendship. Do we point to the great mass of money which has flowed out in charity?

But almost all of it comes out of surplus, of what we did not need for ourselves. There is scarcely a hint of sacrifice in all of it. Shall we recall our church-goings, our meetings, our boards, our committees, our snatching here and there, out of our crowded lives, an hour or two for God in prayer and service? But why should our life be crowded with other things and not with Jesus Christ? Why should He have last place and not first? There is no compulsion laid upon us. We are free to choose, and why not choose today to be His friends, willing to suffer with Him that we may also be glorified together? Brethren, everything hangs upon that choice for our Church, our country and ourselves.

In sonship, then, in membership, in friendship with the Friend of sinners, "look up; lift up your heads, for your redemption draweth nigh."

Introduction

In this address it seems advisable to give place only to those items and records of events which might otherwise fail to receive your due attention, and to those more important matters which are to be considered and acted on by this Convention. Much will be printed in the Convention Journal (particularly Memorial Notices of those who have died, and news of various Diocesan and Parochial improvements) which need not be read here, and much has already been recorded in the columns of the Church News (which in this, as in other ways, is proving itself an invaluable aid to our Diocesan life), which need not be repeated.

Parish Life and Progress

The notable increase in the number of Confirmations for this year may, I think, be safely taken as an index of a rising tide of spiritual earnestness and religious interest. While it is difficult to measure exactly the effect in or on our congregations of the recent evangelistic campaign in Philadelphia, it is certain that the subject of religion has come to be a matter of real and personal concern to very many who had heretofore been largely indifferent and aloof. Some special Confirmation Classes have been presented which were evidently fruits of an extraordinary movement of the Spirit in the hearts of men and women. The harvest truly is ripe, and there never was a time, both in town or country, when the prayers and labors of our Priests and people were more sure of a harvest.

Notable Events and Improvements

From a long list of items in the progress of our parishes and missions, I take the following (once more reminding you that the printed Journal will contain the details here omitted).

(a) The Consecration of St. Barnabas's, Haddington, Memorial to Bishop Whitaker, took place on St. Barnabas's Day, 1914. The church has fulfilled our hopes and expectations. The tragic death of the Rev. Mr. Smythe, so shortly after the consecration of the church, demonstrated the strength and solidity of the work that has been done. In spite of the shock of grief and loss, the congregation held together firmly, and, under Mr. Manuel, who took charge last Advent, the work is progressing favorably at every point.

(b) The new Church of the Redemption (formerly St. Anna's Mission), was dedicated last spring. This parish, under the Rev. Mr. Clay, is developing in its new home in an extraordinary way, and is becoming one of our strongest and most active centers in West Philadelphia. It has significant lessons to teach us as to the need and proper method of effective Church Extension.

(c) The new Chapel of St. Simon the Cyrenian, in the Parish of the Holy Apostles, was dedicated last October. A class of 105 was presented for Confirmation in Lent. The work is in a very flourishing condition, and its future very bright.

(d) The Consecration of St. Mark's Church, Frankford, took place on St. Mark's Day of this year. This memorable service was the consummation of one of the most remarkable and successful works ever undertaken in this Diocese. A building of surpassing beauty, spacious, stately, rich in detail, beautifully proportioned, worthily expressing the best ideals of English and American Christianity; a congregation, including 1,700 communicants, united, loyal, and devoted; these are the results of the ministry of Mr. Harding in that community for more than twenty years. The Diocese owes a great debt to him, his vestry and his people. I am glad in this public way to convey to him our heartfelt appreciation, and our loving greeting.

(e) The new St. Martha's House is rapidly nearing its completion, and a new Memorial Church is building for St. Alban's, Olney.

(f) Memorial Chapels have been dedicated in the Churches of St. Timothy's, Roxborough; St. Clement's, Philadelphia, and Holy Trinity, West Chester.

(g) In connection with St. Michael's Chapel, in St. Mark's Parish, Philadelphia, a Neighborhood House has recently been opened and dedicated.

A noteworthy anniversary was celebrated last June in the Parish of St. Martin's-in-the-Fields, when the Rev. Jacob LeRoy completed twenty-five years as rector.

The Bishop Suffragan will report on similar matters in our country districts.

Diocesan Institutions and Affairs

In the Diocese, as a whole, the pressure and claims of the European War have stimulated rather than retarded our spiritual life and benevolent activity. While no special efforts have been made to raise money for Diocesan needs, in view of the extraordinary demands for outside help, the spirit of the Diocese is, I think, being prepared for a larger and more united service. Our Diocesan consciousness is growing. There is more than ever evident a sense of Diocesan responsibility, and a readiness to face and meet Diocesan missionary opportunity. The response to the plea of our well-considered Church Extension Fund (of which you will hear in detail from the Bishop Suffragan); the comprehensive plans of the City Mission, conceived in the desire to serve the Missionary interests of the Diocese in the broadest and most effective way; the zeal and successful activity of our Social Service Commission, which this year has, perhaps, made its best record of actual achievement; the ready response I have had from groups of men and women when setting before them the needs and possibilities of united Diocesan life and service: these and many other things indicate a very hopeful future immediately before us. May God complete what He has begun in this direction.

The Episcopal Hospital

The Episcopal Hospital needs our special thought and care. As you know, the trustees have been forced to reduce its work so as to preserve its solvency. Since early in this year, about thirty per cent of its beds have been kept empty, and other reductions in expenses have been made. The plan has worked successfully. The heavy deficits of previous years will not occur again. But it is a real tragedy and a bitter reproach that this drastic action has been necessary. Surely the people of this Church and city will not permit it to continue. The false impression has gone abroad that the hospital has great endowments, sufficient for all needs. The fact is that no hospital in this city is more dependent on voluntary and regular contributions. More adequate opportunity should be given to our people to contribute. Thanksgiving Day has for many years been designated for this object, but in this way only a comparatively small number of our people are definitely reached. Better results might come if a special Sunday, at the best time of the year, were set apart for our hospital in all our churches, and I hope this will be considered.

The Episcopal Academy

The Episcopal Academy, so closely united with the life and history of our Diocese from the very first, will enter next autumn upon what is confidently hoped will prove to be the strongest and most fruitful era in its history. Last year its present head master, Dr. Klapp, resigned his position, after twenty-three years of laborious and scholarly work, continuing as a teacher on the staff, and holding the reins of office until his successor should be chosen. This winter proposals were made by the DeLancey School looking to a consolidation of the two schools, that their work as a whole might become stronger and more effective by the right kind of concentration. Negotiations were at once begun and, after much patient counsel and wise deliberation, a plan was adopted which won the unanimous approval of both Boards of Trustees. The Rev. Philip J. Steinmetz, rector of Summit, New Jersey, and formerly of this Diocese, has accepted the position of head master. He comes to us, in spite of the emphatic protests of his bishop, his parish, and the entire community which he has been serving. He is willing to sever sacred and binding ties and to tear himself away from his present absorbing work and interests because he feels this new call to be compelling on his conscience. I am sure he is right. Nothing in these days will serve our Church and our community in more permanent and essential ways than the successful working of a great school for boys, in which the education of the mind shall be directed, developed and sustained in the fear of God and the faith of the Church. Mr. Steinmetz impresses all who know him as singularly fitted for this work. We bid him a very hearty welcome, and promise him that our prayers and sympathy shall be with him.

Two New Churches Needed Now

St. George's, Richmond, and Epiphany, Sherwood, are still calling and crying to be built. The work is waiting; the congregations gathered; the children crowding in; and the priests in charge are trying bravely and patiently to hold down the opportunity till the Church comes and occupies. All Saints', Darby, and Trinity, Logan, are close behind—so close, indeed, that it seems as wrong as it is difficult to suppress their clamors even for a year. But at this moment the first two which I mentioned stop the way. They must come next. It will take about $100,000 to build them both. So far the children of the Diocese have been foremost in building them, furnishing bricks at ten cents each with ready zeal and glad enthusiasm. The Bishop's Bricks Fund has gathered about $1,000, which means 10,000 bricks. Will not our adult communicants follow this example? Ten thousand of them giving $10 each would do it and "if it were done, then 'twere well it were done quickly."

Work Among Colored People

I want to call to your attention the work which is being done in the Diocese for the colored people, and to ask your heartiest support and sympathy. This work receives less notice and stirs less interest than it used to do. Without stopping to ask the reasons for this, I would remind you that the need of it is more than ever pressing, and the opportunity for it more than ever promising. There are two independent and self-supporting parishes of colored people in the Diocese (St. Thomas's and the Crucifixion), and four parochial chapels. In addition to these, there are two well-established mission chapels, under diocesan control, and five other stations under the supervision of Dr. Phillips, who is the general missionary, or archdeacon, over this work. The clergy working with him are men of exceptional ability and character, the growth is marked and permanent; oppportunities are ready on every hand, but we are much hampered by lack of means. You will hear of this work again, both on the floor of this house and at the Missionary meeting. May I ask your ready co-operation, and especially your favorable vote for the increased appropriation which is to be asked for in the budget, and which is so sorely needed?

The Province of Washington

The first meeting and formal organization of the Province of Washington, to which this Diocese belongs, together with the eleven other dioceses included in the States of Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia and the District of Columbia, took place in Pittsburgh last November. It marks a significant and hopeful stage in the growth of the Church. It should mean for us all a broader vision, a closer unity and an increased efficiency. The gap between the individual dioceses and the General Church was too great to be practically bridged. Intelligent co-operation and united action were not really possible. To bring each diocese out of its isolation, and to make the common life of the Church outside the diocese a genuine reality inside the diocese called for some intermediate and more manageable grouping. This is provided by the provincial system, and this is just what that system has accomplished in the past. The first definite and effective step which the Church took in the early days in the development of inter-diocesan life and action, was by gathering adjacent dioceses into provinces. And it was very fruitful in results. It quickened the self-consciousness of the whole Church. It gave momentum and direction to missionary work. It helped to make definite and clear the central and essential principles of the Church's common faith and order. The same results will follow in our own case, though postponement of the step will mean a consequent delay in adjusting ourselves to it, and in our making the best use of it. When we gathered for our first meeting in Pittsburgh, the Provincial Synod seemed to some likely to be no more than a glorified debating club. But when our final sessions came, a constructive spirit had laid hold of us. A vital sense of brotherhood, of a common faith and of a common task, had turned a paper program into a living organism. Somehow there seemed a purer devotion and a more living unity than is apt to characterize either our diocesan or general conventions. It may prove to be the function of the Province, by supplying the missing link between the single unit and the total mass, to stimulate the life and love of the whole body. There is certainly nothing to fear from this new development. On the contrary, there is very much to hope, and much already gained.

The Missionary Situation

You will be glad to have laid before you some encouraging facts and figures. The apportionment of this Diocese, of $144,000, seems secure, even at this early date. Our hope that all of it might be in hand before June 1st, so that whatever came afterwards would go to swell our gifts to the Emergency Fund, may not be realized, but it seems safe to count this year upon a considerable excess over and above the sum apportioned. The actual response made to the Emergency Appeal cannot yet be accurately estimated, but it has been distinctly gratifying. At the Mass Meeting, held on April 16th, money and pledges were handed in amounting to about $1,450. Some fifty parishes gave formal notice to the committee having it in charge, of their willingness and intention to co-operate. Much will result from this concerted effort. Up to last Saturday, May 1st, the treasurer of the Board of Missions in New York reported as received from this Diocese, the sum of $111,257.04 for this year's account (including the Lenten offerings of our Sunday-schools, which so far amounts to $26,424.96), of which amount $16,032.50 is credited to the Emergency Fund. All this is good, and shows a growing willingness on our part to respond to extraordinary appeals. But even more important and encouraging is the steady growth of permanent missionary interest and devotion among our people. The process of individual conversion to, and enlistment in, the missionary campaign is spreading, and herein lies our chief hope as we draw nearer to the goal short of which we cannot possibly be satisfied, namely, that every member of Christ's Body shall be a praying, and a giving and a working member for the cause, and for the love of Christ, the Head. The Central Missionary Committee have had a prosperous year. Some 120 parishes and missions report parochial missionary committees although not all of these can be safely certified as actively at work. But gradually they are swinging into line. Several more parishes have carried through an Every Member Canvass, and have adopted the Duplex Envelope. As in all good causes, information and experience are steadily having their effect in breaking down prejudice and opposition.

Perhaps the most notable single achievement of our missionary year, has been the remarkable story of missionary study classes. The increase this year is due chiefly to Mrs. H. A. Pilsbry (appointed to succeed Mrs. J. Nicholas Mitchell, who found herself compelled to resign last autumn on account of impaired health, after a long term of faithful service in laying the foundations on which Mrs. Pilsbry has built), and to Dr. W. H. Jefferys. Of women's classes there have been, among the Juniors, about 50, and among the Seniors 53, with a total enrolment of more than 1,300. Of men's classes there have been 8, with a total membership of more than 100, representing at least 25 of our parishes.

I cannot think, or speak, of this work among our laymen without real emotion and profound thankfulness. We have been greatly blessed by the presence and influence of Dr. Jefferys. The Board of Missions in detaching him from his dearly-loved medical work in China, has been well justified. He has been busy in Maryland, Ohio, Delaware, Illinois and Western Pennsylvania, but we have claimed most of him for ourselves. By the men in his class a bed in the Shanghai Hospital has been endowed, and two of his men have volunteered for missionary service. A few days ago I called all these men together at my house; seventy-two came, representing twenty-five of our parishes. I have never been at a meeting more impressive and significant. The study of the field had revealed to them the meaning of the faith. The work of the Church had brought home to them the love of Christ as the deepest need and chief treasure of their lives. The Mission Study Class has proved beyond a doubt to be a dynamo of genuine devotion. Christ is using it to draw His people to come after Him, and to be with Him.

The Woman's Auxiliary, deserves as always, our heartfelt gratitude for its persistence in all good missionary work. In view of the increased burden of official responsibility in the provincial organization of the Auxiliary, Mrs. Thomas Neilson, after seven years in office, asked to be relieved of the presidency. She will continue as head of the Domestic Committee, so that her devoted and valuable service to the Auxiliary, covering now a space of more than forty years, is not to cease. Mrs. John Markoe has been appointed to succeed as president.

The Junior Auxiliary must also be given a very hearty word of praise. Their enthusiasm, intelligence and practical ability is remarkable. They are under very able leadership. The fruits in life and character borne by their labors, their studies and their close associations, are very marked, and give promise of being permanent.

Mrs. North, who succeeded Mrs. Thomas as diocesan treasurer of the United Offering, reports a steady increase along the lines which Mrs. Thomas so carefully planned, and so faithfully maintained. This year's offering is nearly $8,000, an increase of about $1,000 with a total on hand so far, for the Triennial Offering, of $20,000.

The Church Pension Fund

This comprehensive plan comes to us with the best thought of the Church behind it. It is a brave and bold attempt to solve, once for all, a problem which has long troubled our consciences, but which has not as yet roused our wills to resolute and determined action. Its main idea (that retiring allowances for our clergy should be provided for not by charity, or by taxation, but by insurance)and the important details of its operation, have been, and will be, laid before you. Three things I would ask you to bear in mind, as you consider it. First: This plan for pensions marks a very long step forward. That it should be seriously contemplated as at once practical for the whole Church implies an astonishing amount of moral and spiritual education. For this, more thanks are due to the Rev. A. J. P. McClure, for many years the treasurer of the General Clergy Relief Fund, than to any other man. The whole Church delights to recognize and thank him for his brilliantly successful work, and his cheerful and uncomplaining spirit in the face of much discouragement. We in this Diocese who number him among our own clergy, and who have the honor and the stimulus of his work in our midst, ought to be more emphatic in our thanks to him than any others.

Second: the central principle of this Pension Fund is that clerical retiring allowances are henceforth to be treated as integral parts of clerical salaries or stipends. The support of the clergy, whether in active service, or after permanent retirement, is no longer to be provided in separate ways, and under guarantees of varying security, or of no security at all. Clerical support, from first to last, from ordination, through disability to death, and after death, if there are widows and dependent children, is to be one single obligation resting on those properly responsible, and will be equally secure at all its stages. That is the chief, and to my mind, the convincing merit of the plan. There may be reasonable criticism of its details, and some modifications may improve it. There may be difficulties of adjustment between the new Fund and existing agencies and funds. But I am very confident that, if we adopt the plan and put it through, we shall be on the only sure path to the right goal.

Thirdly: the plan is the result not only of generous zeal and Christian sympathy, but also of expert knowledge and practical discretion. It has been patiently thought out and minutely scrutinized. It comes before you with a very high authority, for its authors are very competent and trustworthy. The General Commission, with the Bishop of Massachusetts at its head, have worked with great thoroughness and energy and with singular ability. Our own Diocesan Commission, under Dr. Washburn, have shown equal competence and patience. I venture to think that no better considered plan, looking to a more vital and radical reform, has ever been submitted to your judgment. As such, it merits from you the most serious and responsible consideration you have to give it.

New Rules of Order

Certain proposed changes in our Rules of Order are to be laid before you. The committee in its report aims to rectify those features in our present procedure which obviously hamper us in our business. I would point out that the chief object of such reform should be, not so much to shorten our sessions, as to prevent the waste of our time. Our laymen are not less concerned with, or less devoted to, the Lord's business than the men of other Christian bodies. They will take the necessary time and pains. But it is a part equally of good business, and of pure religion, to object to waste of time, and by our present method much time is wasted, partly by our rather cumbersome ways of dispatching routine business; partly from lack of a well-directed plan and order in presenting to the House the vital matters that are to come before it. One proposed reform I would strongly recommend—namely, that the business of elections be removed from the floor of the House, as far as possible, and so arranged as to reduce to a minimum the irritating and distracting interruptions of debate, which are inevitable under our present system. What is known as the Australian Ballot deserves another trial. It broke down two years ago, not because the system itself is defective, but because it was not properly applied. This one reform, along the lines proposed, would give us very great relief.

May God by His Holy Spirit, save us from all error, ignorance, pride and prejudice, and fill us with all spiritual understanding for the fulfilling of His Holy Will, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Memorial Notices

During the past Convention year four Bishops of the Church have died:

CHARLES SCADDING, third Bishop of Oregon, died May 26, 1914. Born in Toronto in 1861, educated and ordained to the Priesthood in Canada, he gave his whole active ministry to the Church in the United States, being consecrated Bishop of Oregon September 29, 1906, in succession to Bishop Morris. He was distinguished by his enthusiastic missionary zeal, his strong faith in the national mission of this American Church (which was the theme of his most effective writing), his practical wisdom in administration, and his genial and stimulating personality which won him confidence and generous support. His eight years as Bishop bore much permanent fruit at a strategic center of the Church's influence.

ROBERT STRANGE, second Bishop of East Carolina, died August 23, 1914. Born in Wilmington in 1857, almost his whole life was spent in his home state. He succeeded Bishop Watson in the Episcopate in 1904. Impaired health curtailed his capacity for work, but he commended himself with singular ability to his clergy and laity, and his wisdom and power were very strongly felt in the House of Bishops.

FRANKLIN SPENCER SPALDING, third Bishop of Utah, died September 25, 1914. He was born in Erie, Pennsylvania, in 1865. His father, who later became the first Bishop of Colorado, was at the time Rector of St. Paul's Church, Erie, his son succeeding him in 1896 and continuing as Rector until he was chosen Bishop of Utah in 1904 on the death of Bishop Leonard. Bishop Spalding was one of the acknowledged leaders of the Church, and his commanding influence was steadily increasing. Vigorous, fearless, sympathetic, deeply concerned with vital social problems, trusted and loved by all sorts and conditions of men, gifted with true prophetic zeal and insight, the lamentable accident which brought his death without a moment's warning, has deeply afflicted the whole Church and thousands outside its membership.

WILLIAM FARRER WEEKS, Bishop Coadjutor of Vermont, died October 23, 1914. Born in Vermont in 1859, his whole ministry of thirty years was given to his native state. He was consecrated January 29, 1913, and the illness of which he died laid hold of him almost as soon as he began his work. Denied the opportunity of active service, he bore his affliction with admirable patience.

During the past Convention year six Priests of this Diocese have died:

WILLIAM SMYTHE, Priest in charge of St. Barnabas' Mission, Haddington, died August 12, 1914. Born in Ireland in 1859, he was for twenty years a Presbyterian minister. He received Orders in this Church in 1910. He was at once appointed by Bishop Whitaker to the charge of St. Barnabas', where he continued until his tragic and sudden death, which came only two months after the consecration of the new building. The present strength and vitality of the Mission owe much to his faithful and untiring devotion.

WILLIAM CLARENCE RICHARDSON, Rector of St. James's Church, Philadelphia, died August 23, 1914, aged sixty years. Doctor Richardson came to St. James's Church in 1901 from Chicago. His ministry here had steadily grown in power and efficiency from year to year. He was deeply concerned in all Diocesan interests, and rendered invaluable service on various commissions and committees. A thorough loyalty combined with a genuine openness of mind gave weight to his counsels and kept him entirely aloof from partisanship. His death came after a long and painful illness.

ARTHUR HESS, Priest in charge of the Church of the Advent, Cape May, New Jersey, died October 16, 1914, aged fifty-four years. He was formerly a Curate of St. James's Church, Philadelphia. A graduate of the General Theological Seminary in 1886, he was made Deacon in the year of his graduation and ordained to the Priesthood in the year following, He served seven years in the Diocese of Massachusetts, and for seven succeeding years was Priest in charge of the Mission at Collingdale, Pa. He retained his canonical residence in this Diocese until the day of his death.

JAMES HAUGHTON, retired from active ministry, died December 10, 1914. For twenty-three years he was Rector of the Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr, and under his administration the parish gained much of its present strength. He was richly endowed with spiritual and intellectual gifts. His varied and careful education gave him ability and authority in theological science, his most notable writing being his valuable book entitled "The Holy Spirit in the Prayer Book," published in 1913. For many years he was a member of the Standing Committee, and he also served as an Examining Chaplain of the Diocese.

SAMUEL PHILIP KELLY, a Priest of this Diocese, died at his home in Philadelphia February 13, 1915. Mr. Kelly was a graduate of the Philadelphia Divinity School. After a brief period in the East, he went to Nevada in 1870, where he remained until 1883 doing missionary work and also holding the position of State Superintendent of Public Instruction. For the next eight years he was General Missionary in the Diocese of Pittsburgh and in the Diocese of Central Pennsylvania. Then followed a period of service abroad in Paris, in England and in Wales, with two years given to the Free Church of St. John in this city. From 1896 to 1910 he was in charge of St. Barnabas' Church, Haddington. After that date he retired from active work because of failing health. He was a valued friend of Bishop Whitaker, and a notable and familiar figure in the Diocese.

LEWIS CARTER BAKER, an aged and retired Priest of this Diocese, died at his home in Princeton, N. J., April 6, 1914. Mr. Baker was born December 15, 1831. He graduated with honor from Princeton University in 1854, and from the Princeton Theological Seminary in 1858. For thirteen years immediately following he was minister to a Presbyterian congregation in Camden, N. J. He was ordained to the Diaconate in this Church in 1871, and to the Priesthood in 1872. After having rendered occasional supply service to a number of the parishes of the Diocese, he was elected to the Chaplaincy of Christ Church Hospital and continued in that position for over twelve years, when the infirmities of age made it incumbent for him to resign. For several years prior to his death he lived in retirement at Princeton.

During the past year eight Delegates to this Convention have died:

EDWARD HUXFORD CURTIS, a member of the Church of the Holy Innocents, Tacony, died August 5th. Mr. Curtis was a prominent contractor in Tacony, an esteemed Vestryman of his parish, and from 1898 to 1913, with the exception of one year, he was elected to represent Holy Innocents Church in the deliberations of the Diocesan Convention.

RICHARD MARIS, a member of the Church of the Incarnation, a highly esteemed Vestryman and Warden of that parish, and for a long term of years a delegate to this Convention, died August 8th. Mr. Maris was deeply interested in everything pertaining to the spiritual and material welfare of his parish. At the time of his death he was senior member of the Vestry, in point of continuous service. As Treasurer of Christ Church Hospital and as a man of affairs in business life he was held in signal honor. He was widely known as a Christian gentleman. He bore the long suffering which preceded his death with marked patience and fortitude.

NATHAN PARKER SHORTRIDGE, a prominent figure in the commercial world, and as a Churchman diligent and devoted in the affairs of his parish and of the Diocese, died Sunday, January 3, 1915. As a young man he was active in St. Andrew's Church, while the late Bishop Stevens was Rector. In 1860 he was elected a Vestryman of the Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr. In 1865 he became Rector's Warden of the latter parish, and in the same year he was first elected delegate of that parish to the Diocesan Convention; and in these posts of duty his service was continuous until his death. As the chairman of the Building Committee of his parish he wrought with vigor and singular fidelity; and the present group of beautiful buildings at Bryn Mawr are largely due to the time and care he gave to the carrying out of the plans so dear to his heart.

ROWLAND EVANS, the most conspicuous layman of the Church in the section of the Diocese in which he lived, died at his home in Ardmore, January 15th. His death was the passing of one who was pure in life, judicious in counsel, faithful in service, and most generous as a giver of both self and means to the advancement of the work of the Church. Mr. Evans for two score years had been a delegate to the Diocesan Convention, and in 1901 he was elected to represent the Diocese in the General Convention. As one of the Trustees of the Diocese, as head for many years of the Widows' Corporation, as Treasurer of the Commission on Work among the Deaf, as an honored and helpful member of the Chester Convocation, no less than in his office as Vestryman of his parish, he rendered invaluable service; and his removal from these various interests will long be held an irreparable loss.

An eminent friend of his thus writes of him: "I knew Rowland Evans well and intimately during the last twenty-five years of his life. I came into close and constant touch with him in many and varied relations pertaining to Church life. I never knew him to lose his temper. I never heard him speak an unkind word of anyone. I never saw him shirk a duty, no matter how unpleasant. He never could have had an enemy. He did not reach the three score years and ten, but he had done his work when the call came; and his name must now be added to that long roll of Pennsylvania laymen who 'having finished their course in faith do now rest from their labors.' "

PRESTON CHARLES SLOWE, a devout and devoted member of St. Thomas' Church, died February 5th. Mr. Slowe was a highly respected and very efficient member of the Vestry of his parish. His ready help and willing service will be greatly missed in the parish which he served with marked faithfulness and affectionate concern.

WILLIAM TAYLOR GUMMEY, a highly esteemed member of St. Peter's Church, Germantown, died at Atlantic City, February 19th, where he was seeking to recover his health after a long and serious illness. In his death the city has lost a conspicuous and public spirited citizen, and the Church a distinguished and loyal member. Mr. Gummey was a man of large affairs in commercial life, and held several positions of great honor in various associations connected with manufacture and trade. He was also a Vestryman of St. Peter's Church, and represented that parish in the Diocesan Convention with singular grace and wisdom.

JOSEPH R. RHOADS died March 7th. Mr. Rhoads was for twenty-seven years Rector's Warden of the Church of St. Asaph, Bala, and delegate to this Convention. He was one of the very few remaining founders of St. Asaph's Church. In his death the parish has lost an honored helper, a wise counsellor, a faithful and devout communicant, and one who was ever cheerfully ready with both labor and means to advance the influence and extend the work of his parish. The singular fidelity of his service will be long and gratefully remembered by all who knew him.

NATHAN ALFRED TAYLOR, prominent in the affairs of St. Martin-in-the-Field, St. Martin's, died April 26, 1915. Mr. Taylor had been actively and loyally identified with St. Martin's Church from its very beginning. He was a member of the first vestry, and for more than twenty years had been chosen to represent his parish in the Diocesan Convention.

On All Saints' Day a reredos, erected to the memory of Harvey Rowland, Jr., long time vestryman of the parish, was presented by his widow; while on St. Mark's Day the church was consecrated, and a chime of fourteen bells, installed by Mrs. John S. But the most notable event was the raising of the $50,000 fund, through the efforts of the Chapel Committee, by which the completion of the building is assured.

Emmanuel, Holmesburg, has received a trust fund of $5,000 by the will of Mr. Frank H. Comly, the interest from which is to be paid to the Ladies' Aid Society after the death of certain relatives.

APPENDIX D.

The Bishop Suffragan's Address.

INTRODUCTION.

During the past Convention year I have performed such duties as were assigned to me by the Bishop of the Diocese, and append my record of official acts.

I will at this time briefly refer to a few subjects of Diocesan interest and then speak chiefly of the rural work in the Diocese.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

At the last meeting of the Convention a resolution was adopted approving the establishment of a Church Extension Fund as recommended by the Board of Missions and the Bishop.

The Committee was duly organized but found a serious difficulty in getting lists of communicants in the Diocese. If the appeals could be placed in the hands of every communicant, either directly from the Church House or through the rectors of our parishes, there is no doubt that such a fund would be as successful in Pennsylvania as in other dioceses where it has been introduced. To this date we have received one hundred and eighty-five pledges aggregating a little over $1,100 for each call. With over fifty thousand communicants it is evident that we should get at least five thousand pledges, but even with one thousand pledges on this same basis we could do something to take care of Church Extension in the Diocese. The understanding is that these calls shall not be made oftener than four times in a year and it is not likely that there will be more than two or three calls per annum.

We are now about to issue the first call but before doing so we want to get all the delegates to the Convention to make a pledge. Slips have been distributed throughout the pews, and we would be glad to have every one present sign such a pledge card and deposit it in the box provided on the Bishop's table.

Pledges can be from fifty cents per call up to any amount that you desire to pledge. There will not be more than two calls before 1916. The Church Extension Fund will be used for new work, such as purchasing sites, erecting buildings, etc., thus providing funds for a forward movement in the extension of the Church in the Diocese.

MISSIONARY BUDGET.

The Report of the Committee on Missionary Budget was adopted at the last Convention, and the matter was referred to the Board of Missions to include any other necessary items and recommend the basis of apportionment to parishes.

It seemed to the Board of Missions that the amount needed to pay missionaries' salaries in our own Diocese should be figured pro rata on the same basis as the Convention shall approve as most equitable for the apportionment for General Missions.

The advantage of the Missionary Budget as presented to and approved by the Convention last year is that it puts all the missionaries in the Diocese on one list.

The great disadvantage of our past system has been that some missionary work in the Diocese, including the Work among the Deaf, a large part of the Work among Italians, the Colored People and the Jews, has been dependent on voluntary offerings and on collections taken in a few churches. Hereafter the salaries of all missionaries will be paid through one common fund.

ITALIAN WORK.

Last autumn the Italian Work in the Diocese was placed under my charge by the Bishop, and I am happy to report that the outlook for this work is most encouraging. During the past three months 137 have been received and 7 confirmed, making a total of 144.

At L'Emmanuello, conditions have improved in the past year and in addition to the service at St. Barnabas,' Haddington, a new work has been started at St. James', Hestonville. The Mission at St. George's, Richmond, is in a most flourishing condition; the congregations are large and enthusiastic; forty-nine were received and three confirmed last month. The Rev. Thomas E. Della Cioppa is the General Missionary of our Italian work, assisted by a deacon, a lay-reader and a parish worker.

We expect within a few months to open a Mission in Chester County. There are many parishes in the Diocese with a large Italian population where a similar work to that carried on at St. George's could be inaugurated. The great advantage of such Italian Missions in connection with parishes is that the services are held in the parish church, the children grow up in our Sunday-schools, and the adult members become familiar with our English service.

WORK AMONG THE JEWS.

The Committee on Work among the Jews is not ready to present any definite plan at the present time. An appeal was made for $5,000 on Good Friday, but the total offerings received to date have been only a little over $1,000, so it is evident that the Diocese is not at the present time ready to respond to the need for a more constructive work.

With the provision for the support of a missionary the committee hopes to report some forward steps to the next Convention.

VALLEY FORGE.

It gives me great pleasure to report that since our last meeting the money for the completion of the Washington Memorial Chapel, Valley Forge, has been pledged and the contract was awarded a few weeks ago at the sum of $52,739. This money has all been raised since our last Convention, due entirely to the efforts of a committee consisting of Dr. Charles C. Harrison, Mrs. Charles C. Harrison, Stevens Heckscher, Esq., Joseph M. Rogers, George A. Elliott, with the architect, the rector and the Bishop Suffragan ex-officio.

For several years we have made an earnest effort to pay off the indebtedness on the chapel, but the appeals for the money to finish it met with no response and I am sure that the whole Diocese is grateful to this committee for the splendid work accomplished in the past year. It was deemed necessary to secure the property against alienation, and the portion on which the chapel is being built has been transferred to Bishop Rhinelander, Dr. Harrison and myself in trust to convey to the trustees of the Diocese when completed.

In order to get this transferred the Bishop and I had to personally assume an indebtedness of $2,000. This money was borrowed by us for the protection of church property belonging to the Diocese, and we would be glad to receive contributions towards paying the note held by the bank.

RURAL WORK.

The Rural Work in the Diocese is specially under my care excepting that in Bucks County. Though no extraordinary development can be expected in any of our rural missions, the average growth in numbers compared with that in the more thickly populated districts in the city is remarkable in every place where we have been able to give efficient supervision to the work.

BUCKS COUNTY.

In Bucks County there has been erected in Southampton a portable chapel, made possible by a grant from the Advancement Society. This was opened in November for regular services, with encouraging results.

At Yardley a new parish house costing about $8,000 has just been completed and the congregation believing itself able to maintain a rector has relinquished all aid from the Convocation. Nearly two years ago the Bishop sent a resident minister to Quakertown. For over a year there seemed to be no progress, the outlook was as discouraging as in past years, but since the appointment of the new minister-in-charge last January there have been many evident signs of growth, and we are all looking forward to the future with confident hope.

BUCKINGHAM.

The new rector at Buckingham has had many years' experience in an Agricultural College, and is thoroughly conversant with rural life and its problems, so that we may expect great development in that section of Bucks County.

The Dean of the Convocation of Germantown reports continued progress in the twelve missions connected with the Bucks County Center Mission and the Deans of Chester and Norristown give favorable reports of the Missions in their Convocations.

CHESTER COUNTY.

In the Convocation of Chester the portable chapel for Morstein, for which I made an appeal last year, has been erected and entirely paid for by a generous member of the Diocesan Committee of the Woman's Auxiliary. It was opened in October, the congregations have exceeded all expectations; and as a social center it is a great help to the surrounding neighborhood.

The old hotel property was purchased at Warwick and remodeled into a rectory and parish hall, the latter seating about 125 persons. This has been accomplished at a cost of $3,775, of which $500 was given by the congregation. This includes a small Ford automobile for the missionary-in-charge, who holds five services every Sunday and has to travel a distance of fifteen miles to and from his other parish at West Vincent.

We did not intend to put in heat or water, but have decided to do so. We have also found that a new porch and new roof were necessary and I therefore appeal for $800 additional. When these improvements are completed we will have one of the most comfortable and satisfactory rectories in the Diocese, and a good parish hall. Since we have had a missionary living at Warwick the congregations have grown from an average of twenty or twenty-five to an average attendance during the winter months of fifty-six in the morning, and ninety-three in the evening. Several times during the winter the attendance has been over two hundred. All our expectations regarding the work to be done in old St. Mary's have been realized and it is now beginning to take the place in the life of the community that it did two generations ago.

NORRISTOWN CONVOCATION.

In the Convocation of Norristown the immediate need brought to your attention a year ago was the Chapel at Gulph Mills. The first story of this has been completed and the congregation has been worshiping in the chapel since last autumn. The cost of the ground and building was a little over $4,000, all of which has been paid and as soon as the electric lights are installed and the bills for this additional expense satisfied the property will be transferred to the Trustees of the Diocese.

In this Convocation some reference should also be made to the material improvements in the ancient Parish of St. James', Perkiomen, the large increase in attendance, and the growing influence of the Church on the life of the community.

RURAL SURVEY.

In my last address I recommended a Community Survey in the rural districts of our Diocese. I am happy to announce that a few months ago such a survey was undertaken in the upper townships of Bucks County by the Rev. J. M. Hayman. He has already accomplished a most valuable work which has met with the highest commendation from Dr. Wilson, the head of the Rural Survey Department of the Presbyterian Church, and Professor Lichtenberg of the University of Pennsylvania. When it is finished it will be a valuable addition to the literature of the Church and a most interesting survey of rural conditions, social, economic and religious.

We are personally pleased to make this announcement as I believe it is the first survey of such a kind that has been made under the auspices of our Church and the first complete rural survey in the State of Pennsylvania. We hope in the near future to be able to put it in the hands of interested Churchmen.

I have the pleasant privilege of announcing to the Convention that all these forward steps proposed at the last Convention have been fully accomplished with gratifying results in each instance.

NEEDS.

I will now call attention to some needs in our rural work which we hope to accomplish during this present Convention year.

In Chester County, the Rev. Dr. Prevost has charge of two parishes and three (additional) missions. Over two years ago we purchased for him a second-hand Ford automobile, which is literally worn out. It is impossible for our missionary to reach all his churches and missions without a new car. By providing such we get the experienced service of a faithful missionary and at a much less expense than by appointing several assistants. I therefore earnestly appeal for $550 to purchase a new Ford car.

DREXEL HILL.

We have a petition from residents of Drexel Hill signed by over one hundred individuals, of whom about fifty are communicants of the Church, asking for the establishment of a mission. There are over one hundred children ready to be placed in the Sunday-school.

To purchase a lot and start work we will need about $5,000. It is exceedingly important that this work be started immediately, and I have every reason to hope that within a few years we will have a flourishing mission that will be able to pay the entire salary of a missionary. I have confidence that the generous members of our Church will enable us to purchase a lot within the next thirty days.

CEDAR HOLLOW.

Arrangements have been made to begin a community work in Cedar Hollow near St. Peter's in the Great Valley. This is located in the quarries adjoining the Church and will be under the pastoral oversight of Dr. Prevost. The quarrymen are Italians and Hungarians. A community house has been secured and the owners of the quarry are generously assisting in the work.

I have obligated myself to raise $700 for this purpose. There will be classes to teach the men English—also classes for the mothers and for the children, under the care of an experienced social worker. In connection with this work, in addition to Bible teaching, we intend to start a church service for Italians in old St. Peter's in the Great Valley, under the supervision of the Rev. Thomas E. Della Cioppa, the General Missionary of work among the Italians. The neglected condition of the people in these quarries makes a special appeal to all who are familiar with the neighborhood and we are certain that the interest of the Church will be most helpful and will be welcomed by the people.

OXFORD.

I feel that I should again mention the need of a church at Oxford, where a gift of $3,000 would be sufficient to secure a lot and erect a modest chapel.

In conclusion, I would say for your encouragement that in the Convocation of Chester, within the past year, three of our aided parishes and missions have given an increased amount of the missionaries' salary and that in the next Convention year there will be a decrease in the Convocation appropriation to three additional missions.

In all our rural counties, Bucks, Montgomery, Delaware and Chester, there are places where lots should be purchased for the enlargement of existing work and to start new missions, but from past experience I believe it is best to concentrate our efforts each year on a few definite objects and I therefore give a summary of the immediate pressing needs which I recommend to your generous consideration. It would be of special assistance if gifts or pledges for such objects could be given to Bishop Rhinelander or to me before the close of the Convention.

Pledges could be made payable to suit the convenience of the donors.

SUMMARY.

For new car for Dr. Prevost	$550.00
To purchase lot and start work at Drexel Hill	5,000.00
For work at Cedar Hollow	700.00
For a lot and church at Oxford	3,000.00
For Warwick	800.00
For note in bank (money borrowed by the Bishops)	2,000.00

Thanking all those who so generously contributed to our neglected rural work during the past year, I again ask those whom God has blessed to give generously that we may make still further progress in the Convention year upon which we have entered.

Other Information.—In February, 1915, the original Church of St. Alban's was torn down. It has been replaced with a very beautiful French Gothic structure, doubling the capacity, and being one of the first churches of similar size in the suburbs of Philadelphia. It is built of stone, with interior lining of limestone, with marble reredos and altar, and richly tiled in marble. One transept forms the lady chapel, another transept the sacristy. The roof is surmounted with a "Flèche" or slender Gothic spire, and semi-detached from the church is a belfry-tower. This church was built as a Memorial to the late Mr. George Lambert Knowles, whose son, the Reverend Archibald Campbell Knowles, has been in charge for seventeen years or since the original church was built.

APPENDIX F.

Report of the Registrar of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, May 1, 1915.

There has been an increase in the work of this office during the past year. This was owing, in some measure, to the fact that many persons formerly connected with parishes which have ceased to exist have applied to me, as custodian of the registers of these parishes, for certificates of baptism, confirmation, marriage and for letters of transfer. A large number of these communicants have been transferred during the past year to other parishes, and thus have retained their standing in the Church. Several applications for letters of transfer have been received from communicants of extinct parishes whose registers are not in this office. This is the case with communicants of the Church of the Beloved Disciple. In accordance with a canon adopted by the Convention of 1913 the registers of this parish should have been deposited with the Registrar of the Diocese. But I have not been able to obtain possession of these books nor do I know in whose hands they are at the present time. I shall be grateful for any assistance which will enable me to locate them and to acquire them for the Diocese.

During the past year I have also been called upon to give copies of records and to furnish data to persons living in other dioceses. The correspondence on these matters has been considerable. I have furnished data to the Historical Society of the Diocese of Pittsburgh and to several persons preparing historical addresses and papers. These numerous inquiries emphasize the value of our records and the necessity of making them as complete as possible. In this connection I beg to submit again a request made by me in a former report, that anyone having old reports or organizations or societies of the Diocese will kindly donate them to this office. The gift of such reports when they supply deficiencies in our records will be most acceptable.

Since the last Convention the following gifts have been received and are here acknowledged with thanks:

Year Book of Christ Church, Philadelphia.

Historical Address on the "Hundredth Anniversary of the First Church Sunday School in the United States," by the Rev. Louis C. Washburn, D.D. (Two copies.)

Year Book of Holy Trinity Church, Philadelphia, 1914.

Year Book of Holy Trinity Church, Philadelphia, 1915.

The Minutes of the Junior Clergy Missionary Association.

Report of the City Mission.

Report of the Seamen's Church Institute, 1914.

Thirty-fourth Annual Report of the Pennsylvania Diocesan Commission on Church Work among the Deaf, 1914.

Report of the Episcopal Hospital.

Historical Account of Grace Church, Mt. Airy, Philadelphia, by the Rev. James Lamb, D.D. (A sermon delivered on the twenty-fifth anniversary of Grace Church.)

Papers of the following parishes of the Diocese:

St. Luke and the Epiphany.
Holy Apostles, Philadelphia.
St. Luke's, Germantown.
Emmanuel, Holmesburg.
Grace, Mt. Airy.
Holy Trinity, Philadelphia.
Good Shepherd, Kensington.
Ascension, Philadelphia.
St. Stephen's, Philadelphia.
St. George's, Richmond.
Christ, Ridley Park.
St. Bartholomew's, Philadelphia.

Framed portrait of the Rev. S. F. Hotchkin, former Registrar, presented by Mrs. Hotchkin.

Four volumes and three pamphlet cases of photographs, newspaper clippings, parish literature and other papers relating to old Trinity Church, Southwark, collected by the late Mr. C. M. Peterson, Warden of Trinity Church. These have been labeled, "The C. M. Peterson Collection."

I obtained in England last summer, and have presented to the Diocese, a copy of the "Two Hundred Years of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel—an Historical Account, 1701–1900," recently published by the Society, which contains an interesting chapter on the Church in the Colony of Pennsylvania. The work contains also a valuable classified index to the manuscript collection of the Society, by the aid of which all references to the Church in the Province of Pennsylvania may be easily found.

In accordance with a canon adopted by the Convention of 1913 I have kept during the past two years a record of postulants, ordinations and deaths of the clergy, also a list of the clergy resident in the Diocese.

The total expense for the maintenance of this office since the last convention is as follows:

For pamphlet cases and card index, $11.45.

(Signed) ARNOLD HARRIS HORD,
Registrar.

APPENDIX M.

Report of the Commission on Church Work among the Jews.

The work to be reported has been curtailed by restricted immigration on account of the war. The outlook is one of unusual opportunity. The Rev. Andrew Weinstein in his capacity as Immigration Chaplain reports for the year 1914 a total of 78 ships met, containing 32,307 immigrants. As teacher of English to Jewish classes in St. Peter's Parish, he reports for eleven months, ending March, 1915, classes held 146, total attendance 669. For 50 copies of the Scriptures distributed and 800 of useful literature thanks are especially due to the Pennsylvania Bible Society; for help to the starving poor and in numerous other ways, the Rector of St. Peter's Parish and his faithful people are to be remembered with gratitude.

Incoming ships since the war have been fewer and passengers fewer, but the same fidelity has marked the Chaplain's work. No ship has been missed. Many a tangled snarl has been smoothed out through the gift of divers languages and the kindly heart of the Christian friend who stands at the gate to welcome both Jew and Gentile.

In the ghetto itself he has many friends, and also enemies. Through a long life he has suffered insult and persecution for his faith; blessings and curses still follow him, for all of which he returns blessing. The war has made the Jew peculiarly bitter against Christianity, which he rejoices to say has failed. On the contrary, never was the future so hopeful for the world, and above all for the Jew. Now is the time to build and equip the long-contemplated settlement house in the Jewish quarter. Trained workers are now procurable because the war has closed some such centers abroad. Because of the unusual opportunity the appeal for $5,000 voiced by the Bishops on Good Friday is renewed. Another year ought to see constructive work.

An encouraging sign is that the Woman's Auxiliary, the Junior Auxiliary and Bible Classes are beginning to study the history of God's ancient people, thereby hastening the fulfilment of prophecy towards his salvation.

Commission on Church Work among the Blind.

The Rev. C. S. Hutchinson,
The Rev. Robert Johnston, D.C.L.,
The Rev. L. M. Robinson, S.T.D.,
The Rev. B. S. Sanderson, S.T.B.,
Mr. John E. Baird,

APPOINTED BY THE GENERAL CONVENTION:

Committee of Advice for The Society for the Promotion of Church Work among the Blind.

The Bishop of Pennsylvania,
The Bishop of Pittsburgh,
The Bishop of Connecticut,

The Rev. W. W. Dame, D.D.
The Rev. John Hewitt,
The Rev. F. W. Tomkins, S.T.D.,
Mr. C. E. Jackson,
Mr. H. R. Pierpont,
Mr. Rowland Evans.

The Annual Meeting of the Society for the Promotion of Church Work among the Blind was held at the Salesroom and Exchange for the Blind, 204 South Thirteenth Street, Philadelphia, on Monday afternoon, May 3, 1915, at 4.30 o'clock, Mr. John Cadwalader in the chair. A resolution of regret upon the death of the former vice-president, Rev. Samuel P. Kelly, was ordered to be placed upon the minutes.

The Treasurer reported that twenty-five copies of volumes 7, 8, 9 and 10 of the embossed music of the Hutchins' Hymnal have been delivered by the Perkins Institution, Watertown, Massachusetts, completing the work undertaken for the Society four years ago. The production of the Hutchins' Hymnal in ten volumes marks the completion of one of the most worthy undertakings in behalf of the blind, for the music of the Hymnal is most necessary to blind organists, choir singers and others heretofore unable to procure the music without laborious individual hand copying from dictation. The embossed Hymnal has been alike useful to the choir singer at St. Luke and the Epiphany and to the organist in California. The publication of a second edition of twenty-five copies of the Hutchins' Hymnal in ten volumes was authorized.

Copies of volumes 7, 8, 9 and 10 have been sent as heretofore to various public libraries and institutions, where the books will be useful to a number of the blind:

The Library of Congress, Room for the Blind.
The New York Public Library, New York City.
The New York State Library, Albany.
The Free Library of Philadelphia.
The Pennsylvania Institution for the Instruction of the Blind, Overbrook, Philadelphia.
The Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh.
The Western Pennsylvania Institution for the Blind, Pittsburgh.
The Chicago Public Library.
The Illinois Institution for the Blind, Jacksonville.
The Missouri School for the Blind, St. Louis.
The Alabama School for the Blind.
The California State Library, Sacramento.
Delaware Commission for the Blind, Wilmington.
Free Library for the Blind, Saginaw, W. S., Michigan.
Church Association of the Blind, Bristol, R. I.

Words of "The Hymnal."—It has been found that the embossed plates from which the words only of "The Hymnal" were first published are of such a size as to make it impracticable to publish another edition upon any of the power presses now used for printing embossed type; the School for the Blind at Overbrook has therefore kindly agreed to print the new edition on the hand press.

Miss Rendell has continued throughout the year to visit among the blind two afternoons each week. During the year three communicants removed from the Diocese and three were reported deceased. There are now upon the roll of the Visitor the names of 137 persons, including two residing in Camden, N. J.

This number represents $11\frac{1}{4}$ per cent of the total blind population of Philadelphia, in round numbers 1,200 according to the latest census returns.

During the summer of 1914, several blind women had the opportunity of attending the services at the farm of St. Luke and the Epiphany on Sundays, the Society furnishing a guide and carfares. Arrangements were made with Mr. McHenry of the City Mission to send a clergyman once a month to the Chapin Home for the Aged Blind to give several ladies Communion. A guide was also provided for several persons who could not attend church services alone.

Many of the 137 persons enrolled are elderly, others are invalids, some are still at school. Of the remaining number, twenty-three individuals have been directly aided in varying degree by the Salesroom and Exchange for the Blind at 204 South Thirteenth Street, maintained by the Pennsylvania Institution for the Instruction of the Blind, either by the sale of articles made by them or in furnishing at cost the materials needed in their work. All who read this report are urged to co-operate in every way possible with the Salesroom and Exchange which was established for two purposes: 1. To educate the public that many of the blind are capable workmen. 2. To help the blind to help themselves by giving them work, thus enabling them to become at least partially self-sustaining. Orders are taken for piano-tuning, chair-caning, brooms, knitting, tatting, rag carpet and rugs, weaving, reed baskets and flower-hangers, aprons, dress-hangers, slipper-trees, printing, etc. No commission is charged and the blind receive the full amount of all sales.

A request having been received from Mr. George B. Fryer, Superintendent of the Institution for the Chinese Blind, No. 176 North Szechuen Road Extension, Shanghai, China, the first six volumes were sent as a donation, to be shipped with a consignment of reading matter, appliances and other equipment from the School for the Blind at Overbrook. Unfortunately the vessel was lost at sea and the consignment never reached its intended destination. Arrangements are being made to send another shipment from Overbrook; the complete "Music of the Hymnal" in ten volumes will also be included.

At the holiday season a Christmas verse composed by our blind communicant, Miss Amy K. Halfpenny, was printed on mailing cards for the Society by our blind printer, Mr. Frederick G. Pile, who has recently been re-established in his former occupation by Mr. Delfino of the Salesroom and Exchange. Mr. Pile and his family at present attend the Church of the Advocate. Being entirely blind, he must employ a sighted compositor, but does the presswork himself, with supervision from his wife to see that the ink is smoothly spread. Through the efforts of Mr. Delfino, orders have been secured for him from Mrs. Eckley B. Coxe, Mrs. Walter Cope, Miss Degerberg, the Salesroom and Exchange for the Blind and others; the necessary printing for this Society has also been furnished by Mr. Pile.

APPENDIX P.

The Board of Control of the Diocesan Library and Reading Room.

The Board is sorry to say that the decrease in the number of visitors using the library as a reading room, and the number of books taken out, noted in last year's report, still continues. It is believed that this state of affairs is attributable, in some degree, to the inaccessible position of the library, and perhaps to the crowded condition of the room, which makes it unattractive. It is probable, too, that the library is not as well known in the Diocese as it ought to be; and the Board is taking measures to obtain for it greater publicity. The whole of the fourth floor of the Church House belongs to the library, and the Board have been considering whether they ought not to take possession of the room now occupied by other tenants, fitting it up as a reading room, and placing in it some of the book-cases which now encumber the room in use. They have refrained from taking action, however, partly because of the expense of fitting up the room (which they have no funds to meet) and partly because they have hesitated to deprive the Custodians of the Church House of the rent which they are receiving for that room.

The policy of the Board in the past has been to supply encyclopedias and costly books of references, so far as its meager income would allow; but in the past few years the experience has been that these were rarely used, and the call has chiefly been for books of more or less passing interest, which we have tried to supply as we could. But we think it a questionable policy to load the library's shelves with new books which are read simply at the time of their first appearance, and have little of no permanent value. For a decade or more past, there has been noted in the world of general literature a growing appetite for the ephemeral. Among publishers of fiction it has grown to be an axiom that in six months a new book is dead; in more serious literature, the demand has been recognized for works dealing with "questions of the day," and in the rush of events, these are, for the most part, hardly questions of the morrow. There has undoubtedly grown, of late, a large general interest, or curiosity, as to "social questions." The requests for new books forwarded to the Librarian reflect this, but not to any very marked degree. However, we have tried to meet this demand, as we can, bearing in mind that it is a religious library we are providing for, and not a secular library; and that such works as we spend money for ought at least to have some religious bearing. The Board asks suggestions at all times as to such books.

The Librarian reports that there are now registered members: 377 of the clergy and 893 of the laity—270 men and 623 women, in all a membership of 1,270.

It should be noted that of the 1,270 members, not one is charged anything for the use of the library. It has never had a "paying member" in its history, so far as we are aware; it certainly has none now. So that our appeal is for greater use by those to whom it is free of charge.

APPENDIX Q:

Commission on Church Work among the Deaf.

The report of the Rev. C. O. Dantzer, the Missionary to the deaf people of the Diocese, which appears in the JOURNAL, makes it unnecessary for the secretary of the Commission to report any details of the services and work, but only to speak briefly of those things which should specially be brought to the attention of the diocesan convention.

The beautiful new church and parish house have fully justified the change from the old building on Franklin Street to these attractive and convenient surroundings. The usefulness of the church has broadened in every way, and the attendance at the services has increased twenty per cent during the past year. The parish is in an excellent condition, and its spiritual influences are far-reaching. We feel that in the Rev. Mr. Dantzer we have a wise leader, a faithful pastor and a devoted friend of the deaf people; and with the increasing activities and interest, this work is destined to continuous growth in the future.

With regard to the financial problem, the missionary reports that the people have rallied to the support of the church, and are doing all they possibly can, but it is necessary for the diocese to contribute for this object not less than $2,500. If this amount should be included in the missionary budget, we must still give it. While we are glad to report that this amount has been contributed during the past year, and some reduction made in a floating debt of $525, yet we will need all the financial assistance that can be given, and we urge upon every parish the necessity for making generous gifts for this object.

There is one greater need, however, and that is for the personal interest of the church people of the diocese. How many of you have ever visited All Souls' Church? How many have ever attended the services, and become familiar with the impressive worship in the sign language? What an inspiration and joy it would be to the missionary and his congregation, if you or your friends would sometimes show your interest and fellowship! If you have the personal knowledge of these afflicted ones, and of what they are trying to do for themselves, to the gift of money will be added your interest and prayers that they may have all things needful for their support and spiritual welfare.

Resolved, That the rectors of parishes be requested to have contributions made for this work upon the Twelfth Sunday after Trinity, or Ash Wednesday, unless some other time be more convenient.

On behalf of the Commission,

NORMAN V. LEVIS,
Secretary.

Report of the Missionary to the Deaf.

To the Right Reverend Philip Mercer Rhinelander, D.D., Bishop of Pennsylvania and the Members of the Commission on Church Work among the Deaf:

SUMMARY OF WORK.

Services.—All Souls', 135; Doylestown (Home for Aged and Infirm Deaf), 8; Chester, 7; Wilmington, Del., 9; Collingswood, N. J., 1; Trenton, 12; Camden, 1; Baltimore, Md., 4; Washington, D. C., 1. Total, 178.

Week-day Meetings of Various Societies.—162.

Holy Communion.—All Souls', 38; Wilmington, 3; Trenton, 3; Doylestown, 3. Total, 47.

Baptisms.—All Souls', 6.

Confirmations.—All Souls', 13.

Marriages.—All Souls', 1; Camden, 1. Total, 2.

Burials.—All Souls', 6; Collingswood, N. J., 1; Newport, Del., 1; Doylestown, 1. Total, 9.

This summary of services and meetings will, I believe, give some idea of the advantage our people are taking of our increased facilities. The Sunday services show an attendance twenty per cent better than in the old Church on Franklin Street.

And yet during the past year, owing to the increased cost of maintenance, and the general depression in the labor market, from which the deaf are generally the first to suffer, it was a hard fight to keep out of debt. It is, however, gratifying to be able to report that our people rallied to the support of the church, so that we close the year with a small balance, rather than a deficit. But this balance must be used in part for our next winter's coal, and to meet the running expenses of the church during the summer.

It was very generally regretted this year that we were unable to meet in full our apportionment toward General Missions. It was planned to introduce the duplex envelope system last fall, but with so many of our people out of work, it was deemed unwise to attempt it at this time and risk failure.

On the approach of last winter it became a very serious problem, how to adequately assist so many destitute people, especially as the Communion alms, always small, were naturally smaller than usual. Happily, the Ladies' Committee of the Pennsylvania Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, of Mt. Airy, who have for many years made the pastor of All Souls', the almoner of about $200 a year for the destitute former pupils of that institution, increased the appropriation, thus making the work much simpler.

The situation is now much improved, and many have returned to work; still there are quite a number yet needing our assistance.

On the 16th of June we had with us the Rev. B. R. Allabough, Missionary in the Mid-western Dioceses. He made a long and interesting address on topics of interest to the deaf generally.

On Sunday afternoon, June 21st, we had with us the Rev. Harry Van Allen, Missionary in the Dioceses of Albany and Central New York; on the 5th of July, the Rev. James H. Cloud, D.D., pastor of St. Thomas Mission to the Deaf, St. Louis, and principal of Gallaudet School for the Deaf, St. Louis, followed on the 12th of July by the Rev. George F. Flick, Priest-in-charge of All Angels' Mission, Chicago, Ill. These visits, which are all too infrequent, were much enjoyed by our people.

Still another pleasant visit was that from the Rev. John H. Keiser, Curate of St. Ann's Church for the Deaf, New York City. On Saturday, October 24th, he gave a reading of Shakespeare's "Comedy of Errors," and the next day, Sunday, October 25th, read service and preached in the church.

The first anniversary of the consecration of the church was quietly celebrated on Sunday, December 20th, last. The services of the day began with a celebration of the Holy Communion at 10.30 A. M., followed by Evening Prayer and Sermon at 3 P. M., the Rev. O. J. Whildin, of Baltimore, Md., being the preacher. Following the latter service, the Rev. Mr. Whildin, representing the deaf clergy of America, presented to All Souls' Church a fine large lectern Bible. It is bound in red leather, and on the front cover there is stamped in letters of gold the following inscription:

PRESENTED

TO ALL SOULS' CHURCH FOR THE DEAF. AS A TOKEN OF APPRECIATION OF THE FAITHFUL MINISTRY OF THE REVEREND CHARLES ORVIS DANTZER, M.A., PASTOR, BY HIS COLLEAGUES IN CHURCH WORK AMONG THE DEAF, DECEMBER 20TH, 1914.

On invitation, I visited Baltimore and Washington, D. C., the early part of last March, and held services for the Rev. Messrs. O. J. Whildin and Herbert Merrill.

The Pastoral Aid Society continues its much-valued assistance to the church through its different committees. They have attended to the chancel vestments, and seen that the altar vases were filled with flowers on the greater festivals. During the past winter a number of them met every Thursday afternoon to do sewing. They have sent baby clothing to the Sheltering Arms and provided clothing for several of the poor of the parish. Their treasurer reports, receipts: $147.59, of which there were expenditures of $70.06, and $67.45 was turned over to the Expense Fund of the church, leaving a balance on hand of $10.08.

The Men's Club makes no report, but its receipts were very small. Whatever expenses there were for refreshments being paid for by voluntary contributions. On Tuesday evening, February 9th, they held their annual dinner in the lecture hall of the church. Covers were laid for sixty-two persons. The invited guests were the Rev. Messrs. B. S. Sanderson and J. O. McIlhenny, and Dr. A. L. E. Crouter, Superintendent of the Mt. Airy School for the Deaf.

Our Clerc Literary Association continues its weekly Thursday evening meetings. During the year its receipts were $77.21, with expenditures of $76.39, leaving a balance of 82 cents. The society is making preparations to celebrate its fiftieth anniversary in the fall.

For charitable and discretionary purposes, I have received the following amounts: Balance, $80.69; Communion alms, $32.51; Donations, $10.00; Ladies' Committee of the Pennsylvania Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, $300.00. Total, $423.20. Expenditures, $392.06. Balance, $31.14.

The Parish Visitor makes the following report:

"I made about 600 calls to the homes of the deaf and in the hospitals and institutions. The hospitals visited were the Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, German, Samaritan, Presbyterian, Episcopal, University and the Homeopathic of Camden, and the Home for Aged and Infirm Deaf, Doylestown. I obtained work for two women, but was not so successful for several of the unemployed men. I have received for various purposes a total of $190.50 from different persons for special purposes. I have during the year distributed groceries, coal and clothing to the members of sixteen families.

"I have continued to take a great interest in the Bible Classes. There are now five classes, and the interest seems to be very general.

"Last August, I attended a Convention of the New England Deaf, and on invitation made an address on our work here."

During the year the church was enriched by additional memorial windows. On the 24th of May last, two panels of a proposed "David" window were unveiled. One panel represents "David, the Shepherd Boy," and was given by Mrs. Elizabeth Pachtmann in memory of her deaf son, Martin Henry Pachtmann; the other, representing "King David, the Psalmist," was given by the Clerc Literary Association, Mrs. Orlando Crease and the congreagtion in memory of the late Rev. Dr. Francis Joseph Clerc, for many years during the early years of the local Deaf-Mute Mission, the beloved pastor of the Philadelphia Deaf. Both memorials are pronounced by competent critics beautiful creations of the glass stainers' art.

On Sunday, October 25th, another window was unveiled. It was given by our beloved friend, Mr. T. Broom Belfield, and is in memory of his first wife, Elizabeth Russell Belfield. The window is a very fine example of the glass decorator's art. Two of the four panels represent the Crucifixion, while the other two have for their subject the Resurrection.

They add very much to the beauty and dignity of the church. It seems right and proper that a church for the deaf (where naturally there never can be any soul-stirring music) should be made attractive and beautiful with pictures and symbolic devices to appeal to the religious susceptibilities through the sense of sight.

The following have our thanks for much valued assistance: For interpreting at services and addresses, to Dr. A. L. E. Crouter, Mr. A. L. Manning and Miss Hammond of the Mt. Airy School for the Deaf; for cash donations, from the Ladies' Committee of the Pennsylvania Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, for work among the destitute former pupils of that Institution; to Mr. G. W. Pepper, Mrs. A. P. Salmon, Mr. and Miss Shields, Miss C. E. Meyer, Miss Blanchard, Miss Willie Kilgore, Mrs. Garrett, Mrs. Green, Misses Huston, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wagner, Miss Laura C. Outerbridge and others.

In the death of Mr. Rowland Evans, on the 15th of January, All Souls' lost a warm and consistent friend. From November, 1882, to the day of his death, he was a member of the Commission on Church Work among the Deaf, serving until May 1, 1885, as treasurer. He took an active and deep interest in the erection of our new church, and gave liberally towards its various needs. He was besides a member of the Board of Directors of the Mt. Airy School for the Deaf, and took a deep interest in the Home for Aged and Infirm Deaf.

We shall miss him in the years to come, for he was ever ready to give us of his time and advice, as well as of his money. More than one of our deaf people have gone to him for legal advice, which he always gave without cost.

C. O. DANTZER.

APPENDIX R.

Report of the Commission on Church Work among Immigrants.

The Commission on Church Work among Immigrants desires to report that during the past year it has endeavored to meet the new conditions arising from the European war. There are two conspicuous effects of the war. First, the call to arms has sent to Europe many who were subject to military service. This has made the field of work a contracting rather than an expanding one. Secondly, the unnatural groupings of the Slavic people has brought to this land a spirit of discord. There has existed for a long time a lack of harmony between the autocephalous Slavs and those living under Austrian rule. While the war has created a national hope among the several Slavic peoples, it has failed to produce harmony among the Slavic immigrants in America.

The effort put forth by the Commission to procure a native ministry for work among immigrants has borne its first fruits this year. Two, a Belgian and a Pole, have been ordained as deacons in the church and will soon be advanced to the Priesthood. Through the efforts of the Commission two Polish students are studying in the Philadelphia Divinity School. The reports of their progress are most satisfactory in every respect.

This educational work is of great importance and promises to become a most encouraging part of the work of your Commission.

Your Commission announced as a part of its programme for the past year a survey of the immigrant population among which this Commission works. A full report of a careful survey of the Polish people has been made. It has been impossible to get exact data of the other peoples at this time. Conditions are abnormal and racial movements uncertain. One notes the trend of the Slav towards the country during the past year. The Slav naturally loves the farm. European land agents have in the past misrepresented the conditions and possibility of work in the farming districts of this country. Large numbers of Slavs who would gladly turn to the farming districts of rural America have been persuaded that there was no opening here, and have purchased small farms at exorbitant prices and with large mortgages in Europe. This is now impossible, and the Slav is discovering the wonderful opportunity for farm work and land ownership in America.

These two conditions will possibly give a new coloring to statistical reports and to the nature of work among immigrants in the future.

Your Commission is requesting seven hundred dollars from the Diocesan Missionary budget. An additional sum of like amount must be raised by voluntary contribution, if we are to continue our educational work and meet the exigencies likely to arise at the conclusion of the European war.

W. C. EMHARDT,
Secretary.

APPENDIX S.

Report of the Commission on Social Service.

The most striking incident of the year's work was the conference which the Commission arranged with the officers and Executive Committee of the American Federation of Labor. Taking advantage of the fact that that organization was holding its annual convention in Philadelphia, its leading men were invited to meet the Commission to talk over those matters in which we were mutually interested. The result was a conference of great suggestiveness, which we are convinced will prove helpful, not only in showing organized labor our sympathy with their underlying purposes, but in stimulating Churchmen to a keener consideration of the just demands of labor.

At the very beginning of our year's work the question of unemployment was taken up and received careful consideration, a sub-committee tabulating the various Church organizations interested in the subject and preparing cards for distribution among the clergy and Church workers. Another sub-committee co-operated in drafting the two bills prepared by the State Department of Labor which are still pending in the legislature and which are receiving the hearty support of the Commission.

The meeting of the legislature at Harrisburg naturally brought legislative questions to the front, and numerous suggested bills have received consideration. The proposed repeal of the Housing Bill of 1913 was regarded as so obnoxious as to call for very active work on the part of the Commission. A strong letter based upon a careful analytical study of the proposed legislation and all previous legislation was prepared by a sub-committee and was forwarded to every member of the legislature over the signature of the Bishop and the Commission. The bill having been passed through political influences, the matter was taken up directly with the Governor and a further statement concerning the defects of the bill presented to Governor Brumbaugh. This statement likewise received the official approval of the Bishop, who wrote a personal letter to the Governor on the subject. The Commission addressed a carefully prepared letter to the clergy of the diocese asking them to write the Governor requesting his veto of the new Housing Bill. The result was a number of very thoughtful letters which we feel added a great deal of weight as showing the Governor how the interested men of the community felt with regard to the bill. Other social organizations contributed their share to the opposition, with the result that the Governor vetoed the bill. It remains to be seen whether the present legislature will draft a new bill, preserving the good features of the 1913 Act, but meeting the objections alleged against it. The important thing to note is that the Church, realizing the fundamental importance of surrounding the family with wholesome housing conditions, took an active and aggressive part in preserving the legislation of 1913, which represents the experience of many social workers and the careful draughtsmanship of trained lawyers.

Shortly after his inauguration the Commission addressed to the Governor a cordial letter of greeting and received a most friendly response. At the suggestion of the Commission, the Bishop of the diocese asked the prayers of the people on the first Sunday after his inauguration for the success of the Governor's administration.

The committee on closer relations with the Society for Organizing Charity has completed its labors with great success. Numerous local conferences have been held between parish priests and the local charity workers. Misunderstandings have been cleared up, duplication of effort reduced and new policies of far-reaching importance discussed and in some instances inaugurated. Hereafter the clergy who are so closely in touch with social conditions through their parochial work and the workers of the Society for Organizing Charity will work in more effective cooperation. Maps of the various charity districts have been prepared and distributed and everything done to promote the ends which the committee has had in mind from the time of its appointment, now nearly two years ago.

Social work among colored people has received the very thoughtful consideration of special committees of the Commission. Two reports have been presented, one being published in full in the Church News. It is too early to forecast what will be the outcome. The whole situation so far as the social condition of the negroes of this city is concerned is receiving the prayerful and constructive consideration of the Commission. Our experience in connection with the work of the committee on closer relations with the Society for Organizing Charity leads us to hope for equally beneficial results in the work among colored people.

The Commission has had the benefit of constant consultation with the Bishop and with the Bishop Suffragan, both of whom have attended the meetings as frequently as their other appointments would permit. At one of the sessions of the Commission, the Bishop was invited to address the Commission in such informal manner as he might wish upon the subject of the work of the Commission as an aid to the accomplishment of his plans for the diocese, especially with reference to the possible co-operation of the Commission with the City Mission. The Bishop suggested that the social service operations should be conceived of in diocesan terms, that questions of public policy should be approached from a diocesan point of view and plans for their execution grouped around a common center. The Bishop stated that he had not come with a definite plan to propose, but that light is being sought in every possible way upon the subject of the most practical and effective reorganization of the City Mission and suggestions from the Commission would be welcome. In discussing the Bishop's suggestions, the view was expressed that both economy and efficiency would be promoted if a number of the existing diocesan organizations were combined or at least coordinated with each other.

The relation of the Commission to the City Mission has been a subject of repeated discussion. Thus far, however, no policy has been formulated—in fact, it has not been possible so to do in view of the unsettled condition of affairs at the City Mission. This is another matter in which progress will be slow, but will be all the more effective no doubt because slow.

The Commission participated in the "quiet day" at St. Paul's held by the Rev. Dr. H. E. W. Fosbrook and arranged for by the Bishop. It was also represented on the Social Service Commission of the Interchurch Federation. It joined with other social agencies of the city in opposing the granting of municipal funds to private volunteer organizations. It was represented at the conference on the work of the Municipal Court with regard to domestic relations.

In the matter of local option, the Bishop designated five members of the Commission to represent the Church in the committee promoting the Williams bill providing for local option. It was the only Church in the city so officially represented.

Deaconess Colesberry and Henry H. Bonnell represent the Commission in the Provincial Commission on Social Service.

A list of books dealing with social problems was prepared by a sub-committee of the Commission for inclusion in the diocesan library in the Church House.

Although the year's activities exceed those of all previous ones added together, they have simply prepared the way for larger work in the future. The Commission is now a part of the official life of the Church, and as such deserves the consideration due to other authorized departments of Church work. Accordingly, it is to be hoped that adequate provisions will be made for its expenses during the coming year. Some pioneer work has been planned for the coming year, the expenses of which have been underwritten by certain members of the Commission. This, however, does not relieve the Church from meeting what has come to be recognized as one of the most important duties and obligations resting upon it.

We are including as appendices to this report the reports of the sub-committees on Housing, Work Among Colored People and on Closer Relations with the Society for Organizing Charity.

On behalf of the Social Service Commission of the Diocese of Pennsylvania,

CLINTON ROGERS WOODRUFF,
Chairman.

SOCIAL SERVICE FOR NEGROES.

REPORT OF SUB-COMMITTEE OF THE COMMISSION ON SOCIAL SERVICE OF THE DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA.

This investigation arose out of a report made a year ago, by the committee on the facilities for recreation afforded the young people by the parishes of the city. The facts brought out by that study made it plain that whereas most of the parishes and missions for white people are well equipped with parish buildings and other facilities, almost all of our Negro work is being done without any proper facilities.

Your committee was then instructed to study this situation and report more in detail, especially with a view of finding some way in which the Social Service Commission could be useful in promoting the welfare of the colored people. Our Church has a peculiar opportunity with the Negro, because the Church service itself has an educational value, because we draw into our parishes the more intelligent of the colored people, and because we, by our system, prevent that divorce of religion from mortality which is so common in the religious life of this race. But this very tendency in them to separate the emotional from the practical side makes more important the duty of the Church to train its colored communicants to self-help; to interest them in problems of civic and social improvement; to deepen their sense of responsibility, not only for themselves but for their race; and to encourage and direct them in working out their own problems, recognizing of course that these problems have their relation to the kindred problems of the whole community.

Your committee would urge that in the report to Convention this year the lack of proper equipment of the Negro parishes for institutional and parochial work be once more brought to the attention of the diocese. If white people need parish houses, surely the colored people need them as much, or more. We believe that the clergy in charge of these parishes are doing all that they can with the facilities they have, but they ought not to be asked to face the great need of their people without the means of helpfulness which their white brethren possess in such ample abundance.

We suggest that this Commission ask the Negro clergy of the city to meet, either with the whole Commission or with a special committee of it, to discuss the question of social service; and further, that at this conference a plan be formed to hold, during Lent, a series of forums for the discussion of these problems in the parishes in which these clergy work. Such a forum has already been begun in St. Mary's Chapel of St. Mark's parish, and has had two meetings, most encouraging in the interest that was awakened and the practical effect which they produced. Our Commission could make itself responsible for securing speakers to open the discussions in these forums, and such questions might be taken up as: "Industrial Education," "Industrial Opportunity for the Negro," "Moral Safe-guards," "The Protection of Girls and Young Women," with attention to the importance of moral instruction and testing of candidates for confirmation. Another subject which we especially urge is the multiplication of social centers, such as the one which has been opened by the Auxiliary to the Colored League at 1308 South Thirty-fourth Street. There ought to be a settlement house in the thickly settled district south of Lombard Street, and another in West Philadelphia.

The movement for establishing social centers in the public schools might be discussed, and especially it seems to your committee that a movement might be started to provide a public playground in the district where the Negroes are most thickly settled in South Philadelphia. No such playground exists there, and if this Commission could stand back of a movement to have one established, a service of great value to the community would be rendered.

Another subject for discussion might be the co-operation of our parishes with existing agencies for social service among the colored people. This apparently is now done by the Negro clergy, on the whole with quite as much public spirit and community interest as can be found among the white clergy. The name of Archdeacon Phillips, for example, is recognized everywhere among the colored people as that of a leader in all efforts for the welfare of the race, and we find him serving as a director, not only in church institutions but in several others of more general character.

Your committee would call attention, in closing, to an institution maintained by the diocese, and too little known, which is unique among those which serve the colored race. This is the Home of St. Michael and All Angels for the care of crippled colored children—the only home of that kind in the United States. An effort has been made recently with a good deal of success, to enlist in the maintenance of that Home the interest of the colored people themselves. This is an illustration of the way in which training in social service, and the deepening of a sense of responsibility for the uplift of their own race, can be encouraged.

Your committee realizes, in presenting this report, that there is a difficulty, the same that attaches to all the work of the Commission, in the fact that we have been created by the diocese, but neither endowed with authority nor furnished with funds to do any work. We have no organ of expression and no point of contact with the diocese at large, and we have been criticized recently as "a body whose principle office is passing resolutions." Your committee submits that if one specific problem, such as this, could be dealt with in such a way as to attain practical results, the Commission might prove itself useful in a way that would command enlarged confidence and support from the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

ELLIOT WHITE.

APPENDIX T.

Report of the Commission on Church Building of the Diocese.

For the Year ending May 1, 1915

The personnel of the Commission on Church Building of the Diocese has continued unchanged. Six meetings of the Commission have been held since the last Convention, the Bishop presiding.

The expenses of the Commission, amounting to $17.50, have been only those connected with the printing of the Annual Report for 1914, a copy of which was sent to each named on the clergy list, and to the secretary of each parish and mission in the Diocese.

The rules of business adopted at the organization of the Commission have been carried out as in the previous year, and sub-committees have visited churches and sites, examined architects' plans, and articles selected for purchase, submitted by the several parishes and missions asking the advice of the Commission.

The Commission desires to correct a statement made in the Report for 1914. Having recently been informed by the Committee of the Home for Consumptives, of the City Missions, that the statement in the Report of the Commission to the effect that "the Committee of the Home deemed it expedient that the proposed Children's House should be built forthwith without the adoption of so comprehensive a scheme," as that suggested by the Commission, was incorrect, by reason of the fact, that there is and has been for many years, a comprehensive plan for the Home for Consumptives, which is being followed in the development of the Home, although it was not submitted to the Commission when the drawings for the Lucas Memorial Cottage were presented, we therefore gladly make this correction.

The plans for churches and parish houses submitted to the Commission have been the following:

St. George's, West Philadelphia, desired the opinion of the Commission on the design for a parish house. The Commission suggested certain modifications in the plans and designs, which, in its opinion, would not only produce a more harmonious and attractive exterior, but also would lead to greater efficiency in the usefulness of the building. The rector and vestry accepted the advice given, notwithstanding the fact that the work of construction was under way.

The foundations upon which the Church of the Annunciation is built for some time past have been settling to a quite alarming extent so that the safety of the fabric has been jeopardized. The authorities of the parish appealed for advice, and desired to be informed definitely and in detail just what was needed to be done. As the problem called for expert engineering service, which the Commission was without funds to furnish, it was explained that the function of the Commission is to "counsel and advise" and the vestry was urged to employ a competent engineer to make a complete examination of the foundations and to make such repairs as he should find immediately necessary to allow for the safety of the worshipers.

Grace Church, Mt. Airy, wishing to prepare a scheme for the stained-glass windows of the structure, so that those now in place and those installed in the future would be in an orderly and harmonious sequence, and desiring the opinion of a disinterested board, submitted two schemes, either of which the Commission believed would prove satisfactory, subject to local conditions affecting each scheme. The Commission recommended that the sequence of subjects should be unalterably adopted, and that designs, cartoons, etc., should be provided for the filling of such windows as remain unfilled with stained glass, in order that the permanency of the scheme might be maintained and to guard against complications otherwise likely to arise in the future. The Commission took the opportunity to express the conviction that the installation of memorial objects is quite as serious and as important as are the objects themselves, and urged upon the authorities of Grace Church, just as strongly as it would upon others, the substitution of stone for wooden tracery for the framing of costly glass, and to make it obligatory that the insertion of stone tracery shall be a part of the donation of all windows in the future.

The wooden floor of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Rosemont, is singularly resonant, so much so as to make footfalls disturbing during the services. Deeming the use of carpets unsanitary, not to speak of the danger by fire from wooden floors, it has been proposed to lay a stone or tile floor. The advice of the Commission was asked as to the least expensive manner by which a permanent flooring could be laid on the present supports. English "quarry-tiles" of a rich warm red were recommended rather than slate, because of the quality of the color of the gray walls of the building. The tiles, it was believed, could be laid in a bed of cement which could be filled in between the floor-joists.

The proffer of a stained glass window for the west wall caused an appeal to the Commission as to the propriety of substituting a "perpendicular window" for the present so-called "rose window." The perpendicular form was recommended as being more in harmony with the lines of the windows in the other walls, and because such a design is in keeping with the character of a parish church building.

The rector of the Church of St. James, Kingsessing, sought the counsel of the Commission on the difficult question of removing an elaborate tombstone from the churchyard to a place within the church. The Commission viewed the proposition in all its aspects, and concluded that, as the general character of the building is close to that fine and simple dignity observable in the best Colonial churches, it would be unfortunate to place within the building an object the character of whose lines is so foreign to those of the Church of St. James. As an alternative, it was suggested that an alcove should be built out enclosing an unused doorway, which structure might serve as a baptistry, on a wall of which the stone could be placed, the whole to stand as a memorial to the departed one over whose grave the monument had been erected.

Solicitation came from the Memorial Church of St. Paul, as to the "devising of a scheme which should be carried out in the furnishing of the chancel." It was learned that the sum of $350 is available as a single donation. In the opinion of the Commission, such a sum is inadequate to provide for any permanent memorial which could greatly influence the appearance of the church, which, despite the goodness of its proportions and of its lines, stands greatly in need of effective decoration. It was suggested that a scheme be adopted for the panelling of the sanctuary and to provide for seats and credence table, but that the present donation be used for the erection of a reredos which shall serve as the unit of the general scheme about which all the other features shall be built.

The rector of St. Mark's Church, Frankford, submitted the design for a stone reredos to contain canopied niches for carved figures. The design received most favorable comment by the members of the Commission, and it was felt that the parish is to be congratulated upon the installation of such a memorial.

The Commission is deeply interested in all that pertains to the "Six Churches" project. The Church of St. Barnabas, Haddington, is still subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. It is the earnest desire of each member of the Commission that only the best as well as what is beautiful shall be placed within that memorial to Bishop Whitaker. Therefore the utmost care has been exercised in all that has been recommended. The Commission feels constrained to adhere to its former ruling that the frames for proposed stained-glass windows, some of which because of their size are necessarily costly, shall be of stone, although the tracery might be of the simplest character. Advice has been given as to the designs for a font; and further counsel on the erection of the altar and the insertion of the carved figured panel which has been made for the face of it.

The ground plans and the elevation for the building for Epiphany Mission, Sherwood, and the general scheme of the block-plans for St. George's, Port Richmond, were approved. As there is unimproved land to the south of the present lot at St. George's, it was suggested that this land should be acquired to protect the church from encroachment by undesirable neighbors as well as to provide a site for a rectory. Such a purchase would enhance the position of St. George's, for the remainder of the block is occupied by a public school garden dedicated to the city; opposite the church is a public library, to the south of which is a small city park.

The site for the Mission of All Saints, Darby, was approved, and it was recommended that an additional tract of fifty feet on the west be purchased to provide ample room for inevitable growth, and to afford a judicious rearrangement whereby the buildings might face the south as well as to give space for a yard.

The usefulness of portable buildings was carefully discussed, when it was desired that one should be obtained by the Rev. Mr. Prevost for his missionary work in Chester County. The purchase was approved upon his strong recommendation.

The Mission of the Convocation of Chester, at Eddystone, was visited and the Commission recommended that the building be placed at the eastern end of the plot, to remove the church from the noisy thoroughfare at the west. The acquisition of an additional lot would provide land sufficient for the needs of the community for years to come, and from an artistic standpoint, would allow a dignified setting of the church and parish buildings.

So pitiful and so peculiar are the needs of the afflicted ones who worship at All Souls' Church for the Deaf that the Commission fearlessly would recommend such aids to devotion as might be considered radical departures from what would be counted proper customs elsewhere. Scriptural and sacred subjects must be treated boldly both by pictures and moulded figures so as to influence the spirit of those whose lives are debarred from the influence of sound and speech. Advice was given to the minister-in-charge as to ways by which the sanctuary might be embellished and certain modifications of the designs for two stained-glass windows were approved.

The plans for the Chapel of St. Monica, for Colored Persons, in West Philadelphia, have been modified and the portions for immediate construction have been approved.

Plans for the alterations and additions to the Washington Memorial Chapel at Valley Forge have been received and are awaiting examination by the Commission.

The extraordinary crowding of St. Martha's House, at Eighth Street and Snyder Avenue, has necessitated extensive alterations in the buildings, but it is believed that what has already been begun will be inadequate when completed, and the Commission therefore recommended that plans should be adopted to provide for all possible extension in the future. Adequate provision must be made for the large library, as that portion of the work of the house is of very great importance.

The design for the altar for the private chapel in the bishop's house has been approved.

From the first it has been the aspiration of the Commission that its influence may lead to the greater safeguarding of the historic church buildings and the preservation of sacred objects within the Diocese, and, it is hoped, that at some day a volume may be prepared giving accounts of the old churches, preserving their memory by appropriate illustrations. The Commission will gladly receive photographs, drawings, etc., of churches throughout the Diocese for future record.

The Commission believes that it is a proper duty resting on those connected with the building of new structures, etc., that the names of architects, artists and chief artificers should be given in all published accounts of dedications, etc.

Respectfully submitted for the Commission.

BURTON CHANCE,
Secretary.

Proposed Canon of the Church Pension Fund.

SECTION I. In conformity with the resolutions adopted by the General Convention of 1913, setting forth the principles upon which a pension system for the clergy of the Church and their dependents should be constructed, pursuant to which the corporation the Church Pension Fund has been created to carry these principles into effect, the Diocese of Pennsylvania adopts the system of the Church Pension Fund.

SECTION II. The Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese shall appoint, annually, a Committee to be entitled The Committee on the Church Pension Fund, and to consist of one Clergyman and two Laymen. The duties of this Committee shall be as follows:

1. To furnish annually to the Church Pension Fund the list of the names of the clergy canonically resident in the Diocese, and of the clergy canonically resident in other Dioceses or Missionary Districts who may be licensed to officiate in this Diocese, with a statement of the stipends received by each of said clergymen from any parish, mission or other ecclesiastical organization in this Diocese.

2. To receive from the Church Pension Fund annually a statement of the premiums necessary to be paid by each parish, mission or other ecclesiastical organization in the Diocese, in order that the clergymen in receipt of stipends from such parishes, missions and other ecclesiastical organizations may be entitled respectively to pensions.

3. To inform the duly constituted authorities of each parish, mission and other ecclesiastical organization in the Diocese of the premiums payable by it, and of the time and manner of payment thereof.

4. To elect a Treasurer, who may or may not be a member of said Committee, who shall be required to furnish a Bond satisfactory to the Committee, and whose duty it shall be to receive monthly, from all of the parishes, missions and other ecclesiastical organizations in this Diocese, the aforesaid premiums and to transmit the same to the Treasurer of the Church Pension Fund.

5. To inform the Church Pension Fund from time to time of the clergy and the widows and minor orphans of clergy, canonically resident in this Diocese, who may be entitled to receive pensions from the Church Pension Fund.

6. In general, to inform the clergy and laity of the Diocese of the Pension system created by the General Convention, and committed by it to the operation of the Church Pension Fund, whereby the clergy of the Church are assured of pensions as of right, to themselves in the event of old age, or disability, and in the event of their death, to their widows and minor orphans and to do all things that may be necessary or advisable in the premises to the end that the moneys necessary to be paid by the parishes, missions and other ecclesiastical organizations may be fully and systematically paid.

SECTION III. 1. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer of the Diocese to provide for the annual payment to the Treasurer of the Committee on the Church Pension Fund of the premiums payable on behalf of the Bishop of the Diocese, and also of the Coadjutor Bishop and the Bishops Suffragan, if there be such, and it shall be the duty of said Treasurer to pay said premiums monthly to the Committee on the Church Pension Fund.

SECTION IV. It shall be the duty of the Board of Missions of the Diocese to pay, monthly or quarterly, to the Treasurer of the said Committee on the Church Pension Fund the premiums payable on behalf of all clergymen receiving stipends from said Board.

SECTION V. 1. If at or before the expiration of any year the Church Pension Fund shall produce to the Trustees of the Christmas Fund satisfactory evidence that the Church Pension Fund has actually paid to an annuitant the sum payable to him for that year out of the Christmas Fund, the Trustees of the Christmas Fund shall forthwith reimburse the Church Pension Fund for such payment and the receipt of the Church Pension Fund shall constitute a quittance to the said Trustees.

2. The Trustees of the Christmas Fund, in lieu of such annual payments, may, in their discretion, enter into an arrangement with the Church Pension Fund by which, in consideration of the assumption by the Church Pension Fund of liability for all grants then payable by the Trustees of the Christmas Fund, the Trustees of the Christmas Fund shall undertake to use all or any part of the assets constituting the Christmas Fund for the purchase from the Church Pension Fund of deferred annuities for all clergy entitled to seats in the Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania and to the widows and orphans of clergymen so entitled; provided, however, that no such purchase shall be made by the Trustees of the Christmas Fund in violation of the terms of any special trust imposed by any donor who has heretofore made a contribution to the Christmas Fund.

SECTION VI. It shall be the duty of every clergyman receiving a stipend or stipends, from any parish, mission or other ecclesiastical organization of the Diocese and the duty of every parish, mission or other ecclesiastical organization in the Diocese paying a stipend or stipends, to furnish a statement of such stipend or stipends to the Committee on the Church Pension Fund whenever said Committee shall, in writing, ask for such statement.

SECTION VII. This canon shall go into effect when the Secretary of the Convention shall receive notification from the Church Pension Fund that the Dioceses, Missionary Districts and General Boards or other General Institutions of the Church have, by legislation provided for entering into the pension system of the Church Pension Fund in number sufficient, in the opinion of the Church Pension Fund, to enable its system to go into operation; provided, that the number of the clergy canonically connected with said cooperating Dioceses or Missionary Districts, or whose stipends are wholly paid by said cooperating Boards or General Institutions of the Church, shall be not less than two thousand individuals.

NOTE 1.

Under former corporation acts the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen usually constituted the corporation which contained the names of their offices in its title. Under the present corporation act, however, the Vestry does not constitute the corporation. It is merely the Board of Directors of the larger body constituting the corporation. The usual title of "The Rector, Church Wardens. and Vestrymen of——" which does not include all the members of the corporation is now inaccurate and misleading as well as cumbersome. It is suggested that the names by which churches are commonly known, such as "St. Thomas's Church, Whitemarsh," "Grace Church, Mt. Airy," or "Protestant Episcopal Church of the Incarnation, Philadelphia," would usually be sufficiently distinctive to serve as their corporate titles.

NOTE 2.

See Act of Assembly, May 5, 1911, P. L. 192.

NOTE 3.

The word "baptized" in the third sentence of Article 7, Section 1, may be stricken out and the words "communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church" inserted after the word

"persons." The choice of Vestrymen may be further restricted by inserting after the word "persons" the words "members of the corporation."

AN ACT PASSED MAY, 1915.

An Act to authorize the insertion in the charter of any corporation for the support of public worship or for any like religious purpose, either originally or by amendment of a provision, that the rector or minister chosen by such corporation to take charge of the religious services by it maintained, shall during his continuance in said office of rector or minister be ex-officio president of the vestry, board of trustees, board of directors or governing body by whatever name designated of such corporation and to validate similar provisions in the charters of such corporations heretofore granted.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall be lawful to insert in the charter of any corporation for the support of public worship or for any like religious purpose, either originally or by amendment duly allowed, a provision that the rector or minister chosen by such corporation to take charge of the religious services by it maintained shall during his continuance in said office of rector or minister be ex-officio president of the vestry, board of trustees, board of directors or governing body by whatever name designated of such corporation.

SECTION 2. All provisions of the character hereinbefore specified which now appear in the charter of any corporation for the support of public worship or for any like religious purpose heretofore granted, whether said provisions were inserted in said charter originally or by amendment allowed by the Supreme Court or any court of common pleas, shall be deemed and taken to be as valid to all intents and purposes as though the granting of such charter with said provisions therein had been theretofore expressly authorized by Act of Assembly of this Commonwealth.

APPENDIX W.

Report of the Central Missionary Committee for the Year 1913–14.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania:

In presenting this second annual report we are glad to state that there has been real progress and growth in Missionary interest in the Diocese.

Referring first to finances: The apportionment of the Diocese for General Missions for the year ending August 31, 1914, was $147,331. This was more than met in full, the amount forwarded to the Board of Missions being $147,590.03. It is very encouraging to be able to report that seventy-eight parishes met their apportionment, as against sixty-five the previous year; and that of the amount contributed, 85¾ per cent came from parishes, as against 79⅞ per cent the previous year. This indicates that increasingly the parishes are claiming their privilege and we are obliged to depend less upon the emergency gifts from individuals. It is also worthy of note that the Committee had in hand conditional pledges to the amount of $8,000 upon which it was not necessary to call.

The apportionment to the Diocese for the year ending August 31, 1915, is $144,503, toward which there had been forwarded up to May 1st, $106,141, which is a substantial increase over the amount at the same date last year, which was $69,342.

The members of the Convention are familiar with the appeal which has been made by the General Board for an Emergency Fund of $400,000 to meet past and threatened deficits, and with the request by the Board that as far as possible the Dioceses meet their apportionments by June 1st, so that the remaining portion of the year might be devoted to increasing the Emergency Fund. A substantial response has been made in the Diocese to the appeal and request of the Board.

Sunday, April 25th, was set apart at the request of the Committee and with the approval of the Bishop for the purpose of presenting this appeal in the parishes of the Diocese and special addresses were made and offerings taken in many places.

On Friday night, April 16th, a Missionary Mass Meeting was held in the Academy of Music, at which the Bishop of the Diocese precided and addresses were made by Bishop Brewer of Montana and Mr. George Sherwood Eddy, presenting the present "Emergency and Opportunity." A very large proportion of the parishes was represented at this meeting and upwards of $1,450 was received in cash and pledges toward the emergency fund.

In accordance with the resolution adopted at the Convention of 1914, the amount apportioned to the Diocese by the General Board of Missions ($144,503) was divided among the several parishes and missions on the same basis as that adopted for the previous year—namely, the sliding scale system based on analysed income. This apportionment was made by the Central Missionary Committee at a meeting held October 27th. A copy of the schedule showing the apportionment is hereto attached.

There always will be in the nature of things objection to any mathematical apportionment, but we believe the experience of last year and of this has shown less real discontent and a much more general effort to meet apportionment in full than under the previous system. The cases of real hardship have been mostly those in which there had been errors in making the parochial returns upon which the apportionment was calculated.

There are 135 parishes in which Missionary Committees have been appointed, but, as reported last year, many of these are inactive. We believe the whole question of meeting the Parochial and Diocesan apportionment will be solved when there is an active and earnest Missionary Committee in every parish.

During the past winter, under the leadership of Dr. William H. Jefferys, more than one hundred men from upwards of twenty-five different parishes have been meeting in Mission Study classes. We are deeply grateful for this movement among the men of the Diocese and we are hopeful that these men who have in this way obtained a new vision of the mission of the Church, will, by becoming members of the Missionary Committees in their several parishes, put new life and vigor into this important and almost vital element in the parochial life.

Meetings for conference and instruction in missionary needs and methods have been held in the various Convocations of the Diocese. The Committee on Meetings plans to make such conferences of representatives of groups of parishes a feature in the work during the coming year.

In closing our report we beg to remind that Convention that under the present Missionary Canon each parish has a part in shaping and carrying into effect the missionary policy of the Diocese, the Central Missionary Committee being composed of the representatives of the parishes, and that through the Parochial Committee the members of the parishes should be kept in touch with the progress of missions at home and abroad. It is only because some parish fail to avail themselves of these opportunities that the people do not manifest a more vital interest in that which is the real purpose of the Church.

The results achieved in the parishes where rector and people are unlike keenly interested make it clear that there is not a parish where in a little while with patience and purpose and the application of business methods the apportionment cannot be met—and all experience has shown that with the missionary spirit thoroughly aroused the whole life of the parish is transformed and activity in all parochial efforts increased.

We appreciate the response which has already been made by the parishes of the Diocese and we look forward hopefully to the future. Notwithstanding the difficult financial period through which we have been passing, there has been a spirit of self-sacrifice and a manifest purpose to rise to the emergency which the tremendous opportunities have thrust upon us.

"Let us go up at once and possess the land, for we are well able to overcome it."

Resolved, That the amount allotted to the Diocese by the General Board of Missions for the year 1915–16 be apportioned among the several parishes and missions on the same basis as that adopted for the current year.

By order of the Committee,

CHARLES E. BEURY,
Secretary.

APPENDIX X.

Report of the Committee on Parochial Apportionment.

The Committee on Parochial Apportionment present the following report.

1. In accordance with the instructions of the last Convention due notice was given, through the columns of the Church News, in regard to applications for exemption of Income from Investments, in the calculation of the bases for parochial apportionments. Seven parishes availed themselves of the privilege. The total amount of the income thus exempted was $45,332.99. The resultant effect was to alter the distribution of approximately $6,000 of the diocesan apportionment of $144,503. In other words, the shares of the other 169 parishes were affected on the average by about four per cent. To show concretely what this involves, we translate it into terms of the individual parish. St. John's, New London, with an apportionment of $3.42, would have been asked for approximately 13 cents less, but for this redistribution. St. James', Bristol, with an apportionment of $115.40, would have been asked for $4.60 less. The Chapel of the Prince of Peace, with an apportionment of $610.54, would have been asked for $24.00 less. The Church of Our Saviour, Jenkintown, with an apportionment of $1,723.63, would have been asked for $67.00 less. St. James' Church, Philadelphia, with an apportionment of $6,584.45, would have been asked for $263.00 less. Your committee believe that these results are reasonable, and that this exemption of income from investments does make for justice in certain unusual parochial cases.

2. Your committee was charged by the last Convention with the duty of reconsidering the recommendation made by them a year ago, to the effect that all applications for exemption, together with an abstract of the reasons advanced therefor, should be printed in the Church News. (See JOURNAL, 1914, p. 67, paragraph 1 C, Cfr. p. 70.) On the basis of the year's experience, we see no reason for urging the adoption of this provision. There seems to be no call for such publicity as a check upon the applications. We ask, therefore, to be discharged from further consideration of this point.

3. In general, your committee believe that the present method of apportionment is working with perhaps as little injustice and friction as is possible under any plan. There have, of course, been some complaints, due apparently to the following causes:

A. Errors in calculation on the part of the committee: we have been convicted beyond possibility of appeal of one such error, for which we express our regret and chagrin.

B. Errors in parochial reports, for which, of course, the committee are in no way responsible, though they have tried to meet them with all possible sympathy. In some cases these errors are of quite a surprising sort. One parish, for example, asked to have its apportionment reduced, on the ground that desiring to make a good showing it had reported among its receipts several hundreds of dollars which in reality had no existence. Another case made clear certain variations in parochial customs which will continue to make any fair comparisons impossible until they are done away with. One parish, e. g., reports moneys for permanent improvements only under expenditures, meeting the outlay from current funds supplemented by a note at the bank; while another reports its income for permanent improvements under the head of receipts. We mention these two kinds of difficulty because each seems to us suggestive. In the former case, we believe that the pressure of our present method of apportionment will do much good in stimulating a careful and business-like, rather than a loose and padded parochial report. In the latter case we believe there is a cogent argument for such a revision of the form of parochial report and of the whole system of parochial bookkeeping, as the members of the present committee venture to allude to in another report to be presented to this Convention.

It remains to be said that the committee have agreed to print in the proper issue of the Church News a statement that such and such parishes have apparently fallen short of their apportionment; but that in one case the apportionment was incorrectly calculated by the committee, and that in others (a very few indeed) it was unduly large because of mistake or misunderstanding in the reports filed by the parishes.

C. There is a third class of cases where the present apportionment seems gravely burdensome; that, namely, of the parish which is honestly learning to do its missionary share, but finds the lesson somewhat painful and somewhat slow. For such cases none of us can feel anything but the liveliest concern. But your committee do not feel, and we do not believe that the Convention feels, that anything can be done, save to treat them with sympathy and encouragement. To offer them a lowered and acknowledgedly false standard, and to say that that is their full share, is to do an injustice both to them and to every other parish in the diocese. And no good can ever come from such compromise with the real facts.

D. It is perhaps worth while to mention another suggestive class of complaints; those, namely, from parishes which, without any detailed arguments, attack the committee and the system for assigning to them a sum greater, they believe, than it is in their power to meet. The chairman of your committee has in mind two notable cases of this sort, both of which gave him uncomfortable moments last autumn; and in both cases he has recently been notified that the preposterous apportionment will after all be met in full and met with entire ease. It is, of course, part of the inherent duty of such a committee as ours to act as a patient target; or, if you please, as a lightning-rod. We are reconciled to the situation; but we cannot refrain from calling attention to the facts, from which, we believe, a practical hint can readily be drawn.

4. Your committee are convinced that there are still unrealized possibilities of adjustment in the present method of calculation. They beg to offer two recommendations.

A. It is felt by many that the inclusion of receipts for extra-parochial purposes in the basis of the parish, is an injustice. There is something more than plausibility in the contention. This inclusion does mean that the parish which gives liberally is asked to assume more than its share because another is as yet unwilling to give as freely. For four reasons your committee, from the first, has favored this policy deliberately. (i) The apportionment plan must have an eye to results; and obviously results were more likely thus. The plan is thus practical; it works. (ii) It will gradually and slowly correct itself as the backward or burdened parish is aroused. (iii) Where the difficulty lies in a real disability, too subtle perhaps for rough figures to disclose, it will tend permanently to the relief of the parish that is honestly unable to do what it may appear to outsiders able to do. (iv) Such a favoring of the weaker at the expense of the stronger, of the more unwilling at the expense of the more willing, seems to us a genuine way of bearing one another's burdens. The plan would be unjustifiable did it not tend to correct itself; and were it an arbitrary shifting of burdens, rather than one governed by fixed rules and principles and affecting to the same degree all the more generous congregations of the diocese. It is a question, however, how resolutely these arguments should be insisted upon. It is possible that a parish may argue: "the more we give for missions, the more we shall be asked to give," and, so arguing, resolve to give nothing in excess of its bare apportionment. We do not believe that this is, or will be, a very serious menace. But if it seems so to the Convention, we suggest the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That in the calculation of the bases for the parochial apportionments, the committee be instructed to consider as exempt all sums given by a parish for General Missions in excess of the amount of its apportionment.

B. The committee has been much impressed by certain careful tabulations made last fall by a member of this Convention, the Rev. W. A. Matos. These tabulations helped to show just where the schedule had apparently borne heaviest, by a classification of the parishes and missions in groups. Your committee believe that further simple and practicable modifications of the present system might become evident through the prosecution of such studies by a competent mathematician. For this reason, and also because Mr. Matos' services to the committee have alone made possible the most difficult part of their task, they beg to suggest the reconstitution of the committee, with Mr. Matos in the post of chairman.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE R. BOWER,
GEORGE WHARTON PEPPER,
J. NICHOLAS MITCHELL,
GEORGE G. BARTLETT,
Committee.

Report of the Special Committee on the Form of Parochial Report.

The Special Committee on the Form of Parochial Report, charged by the last Convention to consider "such alterations as may make its details more intelligible and accurate," present the following as their report:

1. The committee inserted a notice in the Church News asking for criticisms of the present form and suggestions for its betterment. To this notice they received, however, only two responses. They do not, however, interpret this paucity of reply as indicating satisfaction with the form of report now in force. On the contrary, it is evident from these two replies that the defects are very grave; and the committee desire to place on record their own conviction that material changes are urgently necessary.

2. On the other hand, your committee are increasingly convinced of the complicated nature of an attempt to provide a form of report which shall at once really include all pertinent data, and yet fit the convenience of nearly two hundred congregations—each with its own system of accounts, and each perhaps with some one or more peculiar feature due to the history and the local character of its work. We believe that a form of report which shall fit these complex needs can only be devised after a thorough inductive study of the situation by trained accountants. Your committee are so conscious of their own unfitness to carry through such an investigation that they have not even attempted it.

3. Meanwhile another consideration of material importance has been brought to the notice of the committee. The last General Convention appointed a Joint Commission on Business Methods in the Church. We are privileged to have seen the preliminary studies made by this commission. And we find the following facts:

A. The Commission has collected and carefully compared the various forms of parochial report now in force in every diocese and missionary district. From these it has selected, as a basis for further study, two or three which have seemed completest, most intelligible and most satisfactory in actual use.

B. Through the generous interest of one of its members the Commission has employed a well-known firm of certified public accountants to examine the books of the parishes and missions of one diocese in the State of New York, and on the basis of this inductive study to prepare a form of report which shall meet the actual conditions.

C. The Commission expects to be able to submit to the next General Convention a Form of Report, better and simpler than anything yet devised; and it hopes that the General Convention may be willing to recommend this as a standard to the whole Church.

D. The Commission believes that back of the problem of the form of parochial report, there lies another and still more difficult problem: viz., the lack of any one consistent system of handling and accounting for parochial funds. It is, of course, manifestly impossible for the General Convention to adopt a system of accounting, and enforce its use throughout the Church. But the Commission believes that much progress towards this end could be gradually assured if a thoroughly practical set of account books could be specially devised for Church use—or perhaps two such sets; one for larger and one for smaller parishes. It is believed that these would be at once accepted by many parishes as a real help in their work—a help for which they had been looking heretofore in vain. One member of the Commission has undertaken, at his own expense, to have such books prepared, as samples, for experimental use.

In view of these studies and these hopeful suggestions emanating from the Joint Commission, and in view of the obvious difficulty of devising a form of report for use in this diocese, without the costly employment of expert accountants and the duplication of some such comprehensive study of the facts as has already been made by the Joint Commission, your present committee believe it wise to postpone any serious attempt to solve our local problem until after the next session of the General Convention.

4. Your committee recognize, however, that there are glaring defects in the present form of report which ought to be remedied at once. And they submit herewith a revision of the present form, with the recommendation that it be adopted for use until such time as the General Convention acts upon the whole matter.

The principal changes suggested are as follows:

A. On the Receipt Side:

(i) The transfer of the item "Communion Alms" from heading "A. For Parish Support," to heading "B. For Special Parochial Purposes."

(ii) The introduction under A of a subheading "5. From All Other Sources."

(iii) The introduction under B of a subheading, "7. For Support of Sunday-school."

(iv) The entire elimination of heading "C. Receipts of Parochial Organizations."

There obviously ought to be some report of such receipts, but at present the form of report involves much confusion and cross-classification; and a solution of the difficulty seems to us quite impossible without a detailed study of facts. We believe that no great harm will be done by entirely ignoring these data till such time as the studies of the Joint Commission already alluded to are made public.

(v) The addition of subheadings under Extra-Parochial Receipts, specifying the amounts received respectively from the Sunday-school, the Woman's Auxiliary and the Junior Auxiliary.

B. On the Expenditure Side:

(i) The elimination of "D. Parish Organizations."

(ii) The omission of the subsections, indicating the sources of gifts for missions under the two headings "A. Missions: Applicable on the Apportionment," and "B. Missions: Not Applicable on the Apportionment"—thus requiring a report of the totals only.

With these changes your committee believe that the present form of report, while very far from perfect, will be at least more practical and intelligible than at present.

We offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That the changes recommended by the Special Committee on the Form of Parochial Report be adopted and the Committee discharged.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE R. BOWER,
GEORGE WHARTON PEPPER,
J. NICHOLAS MITCHELL,
GEORGE G. BARTLETT,
Committee.

APPENDIX Y.

Memorial from Church Club.

The Church Club of the Diocese of Pennsylvania respectfully represents to the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in that Diocese:

We are an organization of nearly 500 laymen of the Diocese, many of us deputies to the Convention.

For some years past there has been a noticeable decline in attendance at the sessions of the Convention, particularly upon the part of the laity; the reason of this is not to be found in any lack of interest in church matters, but rather in the fact that the time of the Convention is largely wasted and the sessions unduly and unnecessarily prolonged.

The Convention of Massachusetts rarely sits more than one day, that of New York never more than two, while Pennsylvania takes three days and then accomplishes very little. The time is not far off when unless something is done, the attendance will so dwindle that the Convention will cease to be a representative body.

The General Convention found itself confronted with the same difficulty a dozen years ago and proceeded in a most dramatic manner to transact its business promptly and efficiently.

The Club expresses the opinion that no mere "tinkering" will suffice but that some radical and far-reaching action will have to be taken if any good is to be accomplished.

It is, of course, not for us to dictate to the Convention what that action shall be, but we do feel that merely to criticize cannot be very helpful and we therefore venture to make certain suggestions which, if carried out, we believe will prove effective. In a general way, therefore, we propose:

1. That there be no elections more frequently than once in three years. That they be held in a room adjoining the Church and be conducted by tellers appointed by the Bishop, but who need not be members of the Convention.

2. That all reports of Officers, Committees, Boards, Trustees, etc., who report to the Convention shall be filed with the Secretary not later than April 15th and be by him printed and sent to the deputies one week in advance of the Convention, and subsequently printed as an appendix to the JOURNAL. The only expense would be in holding type and printing about 600 extra copies.

3. The appointment of a Committee on Dispatch of Business, which, subject to the approval of the Convention, shall have entire control of the business of the house. This is the plan that has produced such satisfactory results in the General Convention.

4. All Standing Committees to be appointed at the close instead of at the beginning of the Convention. In this way the Convention will secure complete reports at the beginning of its sessions.

These are our suggestions in outline. Of course, they will require many changes in Canons and Standing Orders. A tentative draft of these changes is herewith submitted.

If they are adopted, we feel that no Convention need extend beyond two days and that the business transacted will be of real benefit to the Church in this Diocese.

R. FRANCIS WOOD,
President.

Memorial from Clerical Brotherhood.

DISPATCH OF BUSINESS AT THE DIOCESAN CONVENTION.

That our Conventions these past few years have been unduly prolonged has been a growing conviction. It has considerably affected the attendance, notably that of the laity. Many really vital matters have failed of proper consideration. The problem has been felt to be a vital one and in many quarters has been anxiously discussed. At its February meeting the Church Club of the Diocese made this its topic. Mr. Francis A. Lewis, an expert, and others discussed the subject from various angles. A committee (Messrs. Lewis, Edmonds and Tingley) was appointed to formulate the conclusions. At an extra meeting in March this committee presented the draft of a memorial to the Convention on the subject, which was adopted by the Club. After citing the reasons which have led to its presentation, the memorial makes four suggestions and then offers sundry amendments to the Canons which would be necessary. These suggestions may be briefly summarized:

1. IN THE CONDUCT OF ELECTIONS.

(a) Those now held annually shall (after 1916) be held triennially.

(b) Nominations to be made, not from the floor of Convention, but prior to April 15th, in writing to the secretary of the Convention, each nomination to be signed by at least fifteen clergymen and ten deputies from ten different parishes.

(c) Elections to be held at designated hours in a room separate from the Convention, conducted by tellers who need not be members of the Convention.

2. AS TO THE AGENDA OF CONVENTION.

(a) Proposed amendments, etc., to the Canons must be in the hands of the Committee on Constitution and Canons not later than April 1st; must be accompanied with the reasons for same.

(b) Reports of commissions, officers, trustees, etc., must be filed with the secretary not later than April 15th, by him to be printed and put into the hands of the members of the Convention at least one week before its meeting.

(c) The Committee on Charters not to report to the Convention (save by special order) any amendments referred to them later than April 10th of any year, or unless accompanied with an explanatory statement of the object of same.

3. CREATION OF A COMMITTEE ON DISPATCH OF BUSINESS.

All proposed business to be submitted to this committee in advance. It practically to arrange the calendar, etc. (in general lines following the precedents of a similar Committee of General Convention).

4. APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEES.

At the close of the Convention; to continue in the interim; to be the standing committees of the next Convention.

At the request of the Church Club, this memorial (with suggested changes) was submitted to the Clerical Brotherhood for suggestion and comment. Printed forms of the necessary alterations in the Canons and Standing Orders of the Convention has been furnished the clergy. At a very largely attended meeting of the Brotherhood on April 12th the memorial was fully discussed and resolutions passed (which the chairman of the Topic Committee was ordered to submit to the Church Club). These we may summarize (following the order used above) as follows:

1. (a) and (b) "Not approved." (In fairness it should be stated that the majority of those present would consent to have the bulk of the elections held triennially, but insist that the members of the Standing Committee shall be chosen annually.) (c) "Approved."

2. (a) "Approved." (b) "Not approved," unless 15th be changed to 25th (to allow for lateness of Easter) and the date of Convention be made a week later than at present.

(c) "Approved."

3. "Not approved."

4. "Approved," if said appointments are made prior to adjournment.

The discussion of the subject has been so widespread and so thorough that final action should be taken on the matter at the approaching Convention without undue debate,—action which will be satisfactory to all concerned, which will accomplish the desired object and make unnecessary all the radical changes at first proposed. But the whole matter is too vitally important to be lightly dismissed.

FIFTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

BOARD OF MISSIONS

To the Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania:

In presenting its fifty-sixth annual report, the Board of Missions thanks God for the many evidences of increasing interest in the missionary work of the Diocese and for the manifold blessings that have crowned the labors of those engaged in the work.

The appended reports of the various Convocations will give in detail the statistics of the work, but they will but faintly shadow the great spiritual movement that has been so evident in every department of missionary endeavor.

The Board records its deep sense of loss in the death of the Rev. William C. Richardson, S.T.D. He was one of the three clergymen appointed by the Bishop under Canon VIII and by his faithfulness and wise counsel added much to the effectiveness of the work.

St. Barnabas' Church, the memorial to Bishop Whitaker, has been erected and paid for and there is a balance of $1,415,26 on hand for the erection of St. George's Church, Port Richmond.

In his Convention report in 1913, the Bishop Suffragan said: "Under our present system there is a great deal of promiscuous giving without knowing whether the gifts are bestowed in the wisest way for the extension of our missionary work. There should be a deliberate dedication of a portion of our gifts for work in our own Diocese and I am sure our generous men and women would welcome and support a plan which would protect them from unauthorized solicitation and insure that their regular gifts should be used for the most necessary objects viewed from a Diocesan standpoint. I would suggest that a committee be appointed to consider the preparation of such a Diocesan budget and report at the next Convention." Such a committee was appointed and its report in favor of such a budget was adopted at the last Convention.

Acting upon this resolution the Board recommends the subjoined Missionary Budget.

Salaries for missionaries, lay-readers, etc.	$16,850.00

	$37,600.00

The Board has adopted the following:

Resolved, That the basis of apportionment for the Diocesan budget shall be pro rata on the apportionment adopted by the Diocesan Convention for general missions.

The Board recommends the passage of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese be requested to contribute during the coming year for the Missionary work of the Diocese the aggregate sum of not less than $37,600.00.

The following is the summary of receipts:

Convocation Reports.

REPORT OF THE CONVOCATION OF CHESTER.

For the Year ending April 20, 1915.

Never in the history of the Convocation of Chester has the outlook been so bright. Almost every Mission reports substantial progress and foundations have been laid for a much greater work in the future. Some places that had been regarded as having seen their best days, have blossomed into most unexpected activity. Especially has this been so in regard to St. Mary's, Warwick, and St. Mark's, Honeybrook. At the former place an aggressive work was begun by Rev. Mr. Chattin and continued by the Rev. Caleb Cresson, Jr. The average attendance has increased from 20 to 91 and the Mission is full of good works. At St. Mark's, Rev. Mr. Sanford continues his great work and devises new means for making the Church the center of the life of the community. From St. Paul's, West Whiteland, Rev. Mr. Prevost ministers to five different congregations. At all points, illustrated lectures on the Life of Christ are given. Persons of different nationalities receivethe ministrations and the social service of the Church. At Morstein, a portable chapel is impressed into service.

The Rev. Mr. Lamb reports a great spiritual awakening at Parkesburg and a large class for Confirmation is awaiting the visitation of the Bishop.

At Highland Park, additional ground has been purchased for future enlargement. The Missionary also holds services at Brookline club house every Sunday. In the neighborhood of this club house, the Missionary has discovered 32 church families.

Darby continues its almost phenomenal growth. During the past year there have been 19 adults and 21 children baptized; 83 have been confirmed; a Sunday-school of 311 scholars has been gathered and the congregations have exceeded the capacity of the building. The men of the Mission have a mind to work, and by their personal labor excavated 720 cubic feet of earth and laid the cement floor in the basement.

More ground is needed for future development and a rectory is an immediate necessity. For this purpose about $2,000 is in hand. It is hoped that some generous friend or friends of Diocesan development will help to put this our largest Mission in position to do its most effective work.

REPORT OF THE CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA.

For the Year ending April 20, 1915.

The work of the Convocation of West Philadelphia has been rather that of conserving and building up of the stations at present under its care than that of Extension.

The completion and consecration of the church of St. Barnabas, Haddington, memorial to the late Rt. Rev. Ozi William Whitaker, D.D., LL.D., was a marked event during the year. The Church Parish building and rectory reflect great credit upon the architects. Mr. Duhring not only in the conception of the building, but the care and fidelity with which the various details were carried out producing harmonious and ecclesiastical structures.

The Diocese owes more than possibly praise to the building Committee who had charge of the plans for raising funds, making choice of plans, the giving of time and energy and the loving devotion manifested by them from the inception to the completion of the splendid monument to the late Bishop of the Diocese.

The rejoicing of the convocation over the consecration of the building in June was turned into sorrow in August by the sudden death of the minister in charge, The Rev. William B. Symthe. The great success of the work and the enthusiasm displayed by him during the erection of buildings were of material help to the Committee.

With the occupancy of the new building and the adjustment made necessary by the larger outlook, greater opportunities and change of minister there is at presentmanifested a deeper interest more earnest work and larger accessions to the membership of the mission.

Epiphany, Sherwood, still continues to grow and the builders are in earnest competition as to who can build the larger number of houses and show the greatest improvements. The mission has outgrown the capacity of the present building If the work is to continue to increase in number and exert a powerful and attractive influence on the population that is pouring into the neighborhood, a church building must be erected. The plan has been adopted that will provide on the site chosen an adequate and imposing building which will dominate the entire situation and assist in making effective the labors of the minister in charge and his co-workers.

Delay means loss for the future and the calling of double effort to make good.

St. Titus's, Elwood, under the care of its lay reader, Herman E. Knies, at last is showing something of its real strength and power in the community. The building of the addition for the chancel, decorating the interior and the installing of a steam heating apparatus and the building of an iron fence on the front has stirred up the people so that they realize that they have a home in the Church. A men's club of thirty members was organized and they are doing effective work. The interior of the basement, which is now the parish Hall, has been fitted up by the men themselves and the attractions offered has served to draw many of the men away from the saloons and under the guiding hand of the lay reader in charge a better spirit has been aroused in their hearts and minds. The Ladies' Guild has been a very efficient aid in building up the work of the mission. There is a steady growth of the Sunday-school and attendance on the services.

What of the future of the extension of the work in the Convocation? Money is needed to go ahead but the present needs of the churches projected to be in the next few years are paramount and all else must and ought to wait.

While marking time let us pray that "Our Father in Heaven," if it be his gracious plan, will inspire and cause his servants to realize the opportunities offered to build strong holds in his kingdom.

REPORT OF THE ITALIAN WORK IN THE CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA.

For the Year ending April 20, 1915.

The work in the West Philadelphia Convocation is conducted by the Rev. G. A. Scarinci, Deacon, with the assistance of the Rev. T. E. Della Cioppa. The results of the work at St. Barnabas's, Haddington, have been very encouraging, as have also those at the Mission recently started in connection with St. James's, Hestonville.

This field offers a very good opportunity, if a missionary could give it his full attention. At the present time, Mr. Scarinci is obliged to give three days a week to work for the City Mission,

REPORT OF THE DEAN OF THE CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN.

For the Year ending April 20, 1915.

No new missions have been established by the Convocation of Norristown in the past year, but real progress has been made in strengthening the work already undertaken. To the Woman's Aid to the Convocation, we have been indebted for substantial help, especially at Gulph Mills and for the interest and enthusiasm which the members of the Aid have aroused in our parishes and missions.

At Hatboro the goal of freedom from debt is within easy reach. This little band of devoted workers assumed the debt on the rectory, and through years of patient endeavor has steadily reduced this burden upon the mission.

In spite of the long absence of the faithful missionary at Lansdale, the work has made excellent progress. Under the wise leadership of the priest in temporary charge, the people have worked with a will to build up and to strengthen the mission. The day ought not be far distant when this flourishing congregation will become self-supporting.

The erection of the basement of the parish house at Gulph Mills has given this growing congregation a nucleus for its group of buildings, and a permanent home. The members are now working hard to raise the money for the second floor. In the meantime, the members and interest are increasing. The imperative need of the work is a resident missionary.

For the Year ending April 20, 1915.

During the past year the following changes have been made: The Rev. John M. Chattin has assumed charge of Emmanuel Church, Quakertown, and the Rev. Azael Coates, of St. Bartholomew's, Wissinoming.

Without rendering a detailed statement of the condition of the missions in Philadelphia County, which has been referred to in past yearly reports to the Convention, it may be sufficient to say that there has been steady growth, the evidence of faithful work on the part of the missionaries; a wide field of enterprise and opportunity which is limited only by the number of workers and adequate equipment; and a most promising outlook in every direction. A summing up of certain statistics may possibly indicate the condition as clearly as any written description. There have been in the past year 361 baptisms and 162 confirmations. There are in the several missions 2,349 scholars and teachers in the Sunday-schools. This also clearly points to the need that exists in most of these missions of suitable parish buildings. The missionary efforts of the Diocese are this year being concentrated towards the building of a church for St. George's, Richmond, whose parish house is inadequate for its present and future congregations. Reference should here be made of the Italian work which has been begun and which promises, with the reception of sixty communicants into the Church, to be the beginning of a work of unusual possibilities.

On the evening of April 8th of this year a company of fifty persons gathered in a private house in the district known as Feltonville, a rapidly growing section of the city, and signed a petition addressed to the Bishop of the Diocese, formally requesting the establishment of a mission in this region. The petition when presented to the Bishop contained the names of sixty-five communicants or adherents of the Church who were personally interested in this undertaking. It is evident that property should be secured in this neighborhood whereon to build a suitable church for this proposed mission.

The missionary work in Bucks County has been almost entirely consolidated and put under the management of the Country Centre Mission. This seems to be a wise and economic method of maintaining services in scattered villages and hamlets, many of which would otherwise have had but occasional religious services of any kind. It has also proved to be a means of reaching individual families who have heretofore been without any religious ministrations. The Country Centre Mission has done this work faithfully and at the same time has served as a training school in practical missionary work for candidates for the ministry, especially those who have been received from other religious bodies. It has served also as a test of motive and capacity.

Emmanuel Church, Quakertown, has passed through many vicissitudes and its condition has not been improved by constant changes of the ministers in charge. At the present time it gives promise of renewed life and activity and the outlook is more hopeful than for many years past.

At Southampton, a small chapel has been built and a pipe organ has been provided and it is being equipped with a bell tower. At Hulmeville, a new tower has been erected and substantial improvements have been made both within and without the church building. Trinity Chapel Cheltenham, and St. Andrew's Chapel, Somerton, have both been placed under the care of the Country Centre Mission.

St. Andrew's Church, Yardley, which has for many years been under the care of the Convocation, has relinquished its appropriation and becomes a self-maintaining parish. A new parish building has just been erected at the cost of about $8,000.

The Woman's Aid to the Convocation has continued to perform the same generous and helpful work that has characterized this auxiliary from its inception. Besides its contribution toward the maintenance of a deaconness at St.

Nathanael's, it has assisted other missions; and the gift of a second automobile for the field work of the Country Centre Mission should be credited to its interest.

The death of Mr. William T. Gummey, for many years an active member of the Convocation, regular in his attendance at its meetings, always interested and helpful in its work, deeply concerned with its efforts towards Church extension, is a loss that will be most seriously felt. The faithful devotion and service of Mr. Gummey deserves a wider and larger recognition than is conveyed by this brief notice.

REPORT OF THE CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA.

For the Year ending April 30, 1915.

The reports from the missionaries of the Convocation indicate a healthy progress spiritually and financially.

The Church of the Messiah, Port Richmond, The Rev. Charles L. Fulforth, Rector.—This church in the northeastern part of the city is doing a fine work under the faithful administration of its rector, who has been laboring in that hard field for over twenty-five years. All the property is in excellent condition, the church being beautified with many handsome stained glass windows placed there as memorials. During the past year the services have been well attended and the volunteer choir has rendered good music. Financially the parish is doing as well as could be expected.

The Galilee Mission, Vine Street below Eighth, The Rev. J. J. D. Hall, Superintendent.—Vigorously yet unostentatiously this remarkable rescue center continues to reclaim and upbuild human wreckage. It is not a pauperizing charity. Neither is it a lodging house and soup kitchen, with a slight addition of diluted religion. But it is frankly and aggressively at work in the very heart of the tenderloin of the city, reaching and regenerating desperate souls. Its superintendent is an unusually qualified clergyman. It is a testing ground for the Church's evangelistic resources and methods; and the results establish their abiding superiority. Starting thus with the spiritual approach: a sympathetic and steadying ministry to physical needs is supplied. Baths, meals, beds and work are discriminatingly provided. Altogether this Diocesan institution, putting first things first, is attacking a big problem with sanctified sanity and stimulating success. The past year has been the most successful in its history: and more than 200,000 have used the different departments of the building the last twelve months; the Chapel attendance has aggregated 70,000; over 1,800 have been dealt with in the Inquiry Room; and fifteen men have volunteered for the Ministry. An additional house at 1016 Callowhill Street has been secured and furnished, where converts and workers are to live while being trained. An adjacent property must now be secured in which to carry on the manual employment, which is so helpful a feature of our process.

St. Augustine's Colored Mission, Columbia Avenue above Twentieth Street, The Rev. Henry S. McDuffey, Minister-in-Charge.—This mission, under the wise guidance of the minister-in-charge, has done a noble work during the past year. Much money has been expended in repairing the church building, which was in a bad condition, and still a considerable amount of money to be expended to put it in a state of proper repair. The congregations are good, and they are doing the best they can to help themselves. The singing of the choir is attractive; and the Sunday-school seems to be in a healthy and growing condition. The property of the old mission at Sixteenth and Thompson Streets has been sold, and when the money is all paid and applied to pay off the mortgage on the present structure it is hoped the mission will soon become a self-supporting parish.

REPORT OF THE DEAN OF THE CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA.

For the Year ending April 20, 1915.

Since the passage of Canon 8 as relating to Diocesan Missions, the Italian and the Colored Work of the South Convocation have practically been taken from our care. This leaves only the French Church and St. John the Evangelist as our missions. Yet the southern part of Philadelphia is crowded with mission work, some carried on by parishes and some the work of our City Mission, and some again cared for by the Diocesan Board or by special boards. And if we had the money we could carry out much advance work for which we are planning and praying. We need a mission in the extreme southeastern part of the field where there is a great opportunity, and there is also work amongst foreigners which should be taken up.

St. John the Evangelist has made great progress, and the energy of the Rev. H. Cresson McHenry has brought, by God's blessing, rich results. A large Sunday-school, a large confirmation class and an increasing attendance at all services prove that it was a wise decision to keep the mission active.

St. Sauveur, under the Rev. T. D. Malan, has made good progress and is in a healthy condition. Too much praise cannot be given to the earnest missionary for his untiring zeal which has brought and is still bringing fine results.

Besides all these good works the strong parishes are carrying on missions of their own amongst both white and colored folk. Under the Church of the Holy Apostles, St. Simon the Cyrenian has made great strides. The fine new church has been opened and it is already crowded, while the adjoining parish house is a bee-hive of activity. Phillips Brooks Memorial Chapel, under Holy Trinity, has speedily established itself and together with St. Mary's Chapel of St. Mark's Church is doing much for the colored folk in that section. In this convocation we thus have five flourishing churches for our colored brethren—St. Thomas',

The Church of the Crucifixion, St. Simon the Cyrenian, St. Mary's Chapel, and Phillips Brooks Memorial Chapel. The indefatigable zeal of Rev. Mr. Della Cioppa not only makes L'Emmanuello prosperous, but is reaching to many places in the Diocese. Altogether we may thank God for what has been done even while we plan and pray for greater things.

It is a source of regret that, because several churches have not paid the amount asked for missionary work, our report must show only $3,740.75 received, when $5,036 was asked. Perhaps we can improve upon this in the future.
